OHIO'S NATIVE SONS PROBABLY DEFEATED

Incomplete Returns From Buckeye State Primaries Show Roosevelt and Wilson Leading Respective Opponents By a Three to Two Vote—Hard Blow For Harmon and Taft.

Columbus, O., May 22.—With little more than one-third of the total vote in the State counted at 1 o'clock this morning, Col. Roosevelt's delegates on the Republican ticket, and Governor Harmon's on the Democratic preference ballot, led Ohio's first Presidential preference primary. The fight on both tickets was so close, however, that complete returns may change final results.

Complete returns form slightly less than 2,000 precincts of 5,192 in the State showed that Col. Roosevelt's delegates had a lead of more than 15,000 votes.

Governor Harmon's lead over Woodrow Wilson was considerably less than this. The closeness of his race with Wilson was indicated by late reports from Cincinnati, Governor Harmon's home city. Here the Ohio Governor, who had been well in the lead in the early returns, was shown to have 1,954 votes and Wilson 1,904 in 120 precincts out of a total of 361.

A peculiar situation developed in the compilation of the results. This showed that while Col. Roosevelt had a lead of 15,000 in the total number cast for delegates pledged to him, the vote by districts would be such that he probably would not have more than 22 of the 42 district delegates to the National convention at Chicago. But, while the Democratic Presidential vote was so close the result could not be foretold, the indications were that Governor Harmon would have at least 22 or 24 of the delegates to the Baltimore convention.

The privilege of naming the six delegates at large of the State, however, is carried by the winner of the Presidential preference vote.

Of the Congressional districts, Colonel Roosevelt, apparently, has won the delegates in the Fourth, Sixth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth and Twenty-first districts. President Taft practically has been granted the First, Second, Third, probably the Fifth, Seventh, Eighth and Thirteenth districts.

The Sixteenth district remained in doubt, although both sides claimed it. Roosevelt supporters also claim two or three of the districts listed for Mr. Taft tonight. Despite the close fight between the Taft and Roosevelt forces on the Republican ticket, United States Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin, received considerable support, particularly in Cleveland and Toledo precincts, where he was credited with several thousand votes. In Wood county, near Toledo, Senator LaFollette ran second to Colonel Roosevelt.

Mr. Bryan and Speaker Clark, although their names were not on the Democrat ballot, received a scattering vote through many precincts in the State.

Cincinnati, Cleveland, Toledo, Columbus, Dayton and a dozen more of the larger cities in the State furnished the greater portion of tonight's returns. Because of the complexity of the primary ballot, the count in rural districts was unusually slow.

Early Returns From Primary.

Columbus, O., May 21.—On the face of the early returns in Ohio's first Presidential preference primary today, Col. Theodore Roosevelt led the Republican ticket by three to two over President Taft and Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, led Governor Judson Harmon of Ohio, on the Democratic ticket by about the same percentage.

These returns, however, were given on a basis of complete figures from little more than 250 precincts out of a total of 5,192 precincts in the State.

Only on the Democratic ticket does the count represent a direct Presidential preference vote. On the Republican ticket the vote computed is the total number of ballots cast in the precinct counted for delegates to the National Convention pledged to Colonel Roosevelt or President Taft. It was impossible from the early returns to gather an indication of the number of delegates either President Taft or Colonel Roosevelt have gained.

President Taft appeared to have carried Cincinnati by a large margin, and also Toledo and Dayton, among the larger cities. This was more than offset by the vote given Col. Roosevelt in Cleveland, Columbus, and other cities. The Roosevelt lead in the northern end of the State, it is said, would give the former President an advantage which Mr. Taft could not overcome by his vote in the southern end of the State, including Cincinnati, his home, and the rural districts.

Senator LaFollette received a larger vote than State politicians had predicted for him, getting a considerable fraction of the vote cast in the northern end of the State, including Cleveland.

Governor Wilson, like Col. Roosevelt, was given his biggest vote in the city of Cleveland, and the surrounding counties. Governor Harmon polled a heavy vote in Columbus, the capital, and also in his home city, Cincinnati.

Harmon's campaign managers, despite the early figures, declared that their candidate had carried the State through the heavy vote they expected had been given him in the country districts. Governor Wilson's chief strength, they said, had been in Cleveland, where Mayor Newton D. Baker had waged a strong fight against Harmon. Mayor Baker, however, in a statement issued by him at Cleveland, insisted that Governor Wilson had carried Ohio by a vote of two to one.

Both Champ Clark and Mr. Bryan, although their names were not on the preference ballot and they were not represented by delegates, were given a scattering vote through the State, which, when final returns have been received, may affect the outcome of the Wilson-Harmon race.

The total Republican vote thus far given, indicates the vote given the delegates in the different districts who are running in the names of Taft and Roosevelt.

Dixon Claims Large Majority

Washington, May 21.—At midnight Senator Dixon issued the following statement from the Roosevelt National headquarters:

"There is no further room for argument. On last Thursday at Columbus Mr. Taft in his speech said: 'The vote in Ohio, my home State, will be the decisive one, and will settle the nomination.'

"Ohio has spoken. By a majority of probably 50,000 she has declared her preference for Theodore Roosevelt as Republican nominee for President. Roosevelt will have 44 of the 48 delegates in Mr. Taft's own State.

"Theodore Roosevelt will be nominated as the Republican candidate for President on the first ballot at Chicago, and will be elected in November by the biggest majority ever given a Presidential candidate. This is the end of the contest."

No statement was issued by the Taft managers tonight. It was stated at the President's headquarters that more complete returns would be awaited before comment would be made. Both headquarters were beseiged by members of Congress and political leaders tonight for news of the Ohio fight.

Claims of Republicans

Columbus, Ohio, May 21.—Out of 21 Congressional districts in the State, totals computed at a time when fewer than half the precincts were counted, indicated that Roosevelt will have 20 of the 42 district delegates and that Taft will have 14, while the returns are so incomplete that eight delegates at present cannot be counted by either side.

Apparently Mr. Taft has the First, Second, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Thirteenth and Fifteenth.

Mr. Roosevelt is believed to have won the delegates in the Fourth, Fifth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Fourteenth, Seventeenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth and Twenty-first. The vote in the Third is very close as it is in the Ninth and Sixteenth. Friends of President Taft declare he has carried the Eighteenth, but Roosevelt supporters will not concede this. The Eighteenth is on the Eastern border of the State and returns have been very slow.

Democratic Claims

Columbus, Ohio, May 21.—Apparently Governor Harmon has carried 12 out of the 21 districts, giving him 24 of the 42 delegates to the National Convention. If this proves true, it also will give him the six delegates at large from the State. In the call of the Democratic Convention it was stipulated that the winner of the primary should name the delegates at large.

Governor Wilson's manager claims the First, Fourth, Fifth, Eighth, Ninth, Twentieth and Twenty-first districts. The Harmon men declared that beyond doubt they have won the Second, Third, Sixth, Seventh, Tenth, Eleventh, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth and Nineteenth districts.

No Statement From Taft.

Philadelphia, May 21.—President Taft stopped over here 20 minutes en route to Washington shortly before midnight. He did not appear and Secretary Hilles said returns from the Ohio primary were too indefinite for any sort of a statement.

When the President's train arrived here Ohio returns up to 1:30 o'clock tonight showing Roosevelt leading in 195 precincts out of over 5,100 were in hand. These were turned over to the Associated Press representative with Mr. Taft, who in turn handed them to Secretary Hilles. The latter immediately went to the President, but nothing in the way of comment was forthcoming.

Mr. Taft got his first news at Dennison, Ohio, the last stop his train made before reaching this city. The President apparently was not worried about the Ohio result. He slept on his car much of the way from Cincinnati to Dennison and Dr. Thomas Rhoades, his physician, was confident that he will enter the New Jersey campaign Thursday in fine fettle.

New York, May 21.—An innovation in the way of a special police department to look after the interests of the shoppers and the stores along Fifth avenue was furnished today by an organization of merchants on New York's fashionable thoroughfares. This private police force has the sanction of Police Commissioner Waldo, who has placed a man at the head of the new organization.

COAL MEN HEARD AT JUDGE'S TRIAL

Testimony Related to Interviews With Archbald About Coal Deals.

JURIST ARRANGED MEETINGS

Officials of Coal Companies Affiliated With Railroads Told of Judge's Inquiries About Culm Banks —Received Letters

Washington, May 21.—Officials of coal companies affiliated with railroads today testified before the House Judiciary Committee investigating charges against Judge Robert W. Archbald, of the Commerce Court, relating to interviews the jurist had obtained with them about coal deals.

George F. Baer and W. J. Richards, of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal & Iron Company; Frederic W. Jones, connected with the Delaware & Hudson coal department and others testified. All but Mr. Baer told of interviews with the jurist.

Mr. Baer said the Reading Railroad Company was not connected with the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Company, of which he is also president. The policy of the company, he said, was not to lease its culm banks.

"Did Judge Archbald to your knowledge intercede with you or your company to lease a culm bank to Fred Warnke, of Scranton?" asked Chairman Clayton.

"Not with me."

Vice President Richards, of the same coal company, testified that on November 26th or 27th, 1911, Judge Archbald called on him at Pottsville and asked for the situation in regard to the proposed Warnke lease.

"I told him the matter had been considered and was practically closed and that the culm bank would not be leased," said Mr. Richards.

A letter written from Scranton by Judge Archbald, arranging the interview was read. It was written on a letter head of the Commerce Court.

Mr. Richards was asked if his brother was offered $5,000 to get him to change his mind so Warnke could get the lease.

"My brother had nothing to do with it. Warnke wrote him about three years ago to use his influence with me."

Fred Warnke told of buying an interest in a lease of a Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Company culm bank and of unsuccessful endeavors to renew it, as the company considered him a trespasser and not a tenant. He related negotiations with the company, concluded when Vice President Richards refused to see him or answer his letters. Then he asked Judge Archbald to aid him, the judge consenting to talk to Richards.

A month later Judge Archbald informed him that he had seen Richards, but could do nothing.

"If he succeeded what did you expect to give him?"

"Only friendship."

The witness added that not until this inquiry arose did it occur to him he had done wrong in asking Judge Archbald to do him this favor.

Last December Warnke said the asked Judge Archbald about title to a coal fill at Pittston. The judge responded he could not act as attorney, but Warnke said he just wanted his opinion. The judge told him, he said, the title was good. After closing the deal, he told Judge Archbald he wanted to pay him $500, but that the latter was not willing to take it at first. Last March, however, Warnke drew the note signed by his company made payable to the members of the company and endorsed by them. Later Judge Archbald called for it.

Fred W. Jones, of Scranton, of the coal department of the Delaware & Hudson, told of the sale of the Pittston fill which Warnke finally bought. He said he told John Henry Jones, of the fill and later Jones told him that Judge Archbald had gotten an option on the fill. The witness said he never saw such an option, but he understood the judge got it two or three days after he told Jones about it. The witness declared he understood Judge Archbald would be able to get a right-of-way from the Delaware & Hudson Railroad to draw the coal out.

On April, 1911, Jones testified that he and John Henry Jones met in Judge Archbald's office and talked over the deal. The witness said he was agreed that he, the witness, should be compensated for "discovering" the fill, and it was agreed that Jones should go to City Attorney Davis' office to draw up an agreement. The paper was read.

"Why did you and Jones go to Judge Archbald's office?" asked Representative Norris.

"Well, I understood he had the option and I was to be compensated," respended the witness.

"What did the judge say?"

"He said it would be all right to compensate me."

New Orleans, May 21.—Assurances of hearty co-operation were made by the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, Board of Trade and other commercial bodies last night to the city dock board endorsing the establishment here of a mammoth cotton warehouse. The project provides for the handling of 3,100,000 bales and the storage of 1,000,000 bales in season with minimum handling and storage charges.

WATERS THREATEN UNTOUCHED TOWNS

MANY LIVES ARE IMPERILED

Work of Closing Hymelia Crevasse Well Underway—Heavy Rain Floods New Orleans Streets In Business Section

New Orleans, May 21.—With the work of closing the Hymelia crevasse well underway, available engineers and army officers interested in the relief and rescue work today directed their efforts to the Atchafalya basin, where crevasse waters are threatening sections heretofore untouched, imperiling lives and property.

Citizens of upper St. Landry parish, after receiving the warning of the United States engineers that waters flowing through the northeastern part of the parish might endanger their lives, today fled to Washington, La.

Water in Melville, coming from the Alto break, was reported from six inches to three feet deep in several stores. Those who get away have already left that town. Engineers and laborers are gathered at Alto where the work of tieing the break will probably start tomorrow.

Flood waters continue to rise at Morgan City, where the merchants have erected elevated floors in their stores.

Captain L. V. Cooley, representing the New Orleans Flood Committee, left for the Black river and Atchafalya section on the steamer St. James today for the purpose of investigating conditions and report to the committee as to the best methods as to sending supplies where they are needed most.

A heavy downpour between two and three o'clock this afternoon flooded New Orleans streets for 20 minutes or more. Streets in the business section were small rivers and it was impossible for pedestrians to venture on many sidewalks.

Town of Melville Inundated.

New Orleans, May 21.—Reports from Melville today state that every store in the town has water over the floors at varying depths and that the indications were that before the water from the Alto crevasse on the Atchafalaya begins to recede only a few residences will be dry. Remaining families are moving into the second stories of their dwellings.

Many Melville storekeepers and residents built elevated walks in front of the places, but the rising flood floated these away and the only means of travel is by boat. The postoffice has been transferred to the railroad station. Floods from the lower Atchafalaya crevases, the Bayou des Glaizes and Alto breaks driving against the Texas & Pacific right of way, may force suspension of traffic before many days. The engineers have decided to "tie" the Alto break.

Jumps From Barge; Drowned.

The Atchafalaya continues to rise at Morgan City and last night many of the streets of that town were under from six to ten inches of water. Merchants have bought thousands of feet of lumber for constructing elevated floors.

CHANGE CONFESSION OF FAITH

Southern Presbyterians Adopt Substitute to Elect Infant Clause and Refer It to Presbyteries for Ratification.

Bristol, Tenn., May 21.—The General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church today disposed of the controversy over the infant elect clause by adopting and referring to the presbyteries for their ratification a substitute for the elect infant clause of the confession of faith. The resolution carrying the proposed substitute clause was passed after the most lively debate of the present session and after numerous amendments had been voted down. The Assembly finally agreed upon a form that suited a large majority of the commissioners, which is as follows:

"Being elect, all dying infants in infancy, are saved and regenerated through the spirit of Christ," etc.

The canvass of the returns from the presbyteries made today showed that a substitute, in substance the same as the above, had failed to receive a three fourths vote, although the presbyteries asked for a change. The present elect clause is: "Elect infants dying in infancy, are regenerated and saved," etc.

Vigorous speeches were made on the subject and various substitutes were proposed. Some strongly opposed any change, declaring that the present clause rightly interpreted does not teach infant damnation. Others held it was susceptible of that construction. Dr. F. M. Woods, of West Virginia, said any change would be "showing the white feather."

Ex-Governor M. F. Ansell, of South Carolina; Dr. James I. Vance, of Nashville; Dr. E. M. Munroe, of Dallas, Texas, and Dr. R. A. Webb, of Louisville, strongly urged the amendment.

With this syllogistic statement, Dr. J. J. Chisolm, of Natchez, Miss., opposed the substitute:

"All who are saved were elect to be saved. No man can be elect who was not an elect infant. All infants who are saved must be elect infants. No elect infant can pass into manhood and not be saved."

Declaring that the international graded Sunday School lesson helps are highly critical, a report was made to the Assembly recommending that a letter be issued urging pastors and superintendents against their further use or the use of other such matter not sanctioned by the publication committee. This elicited much debate and over strenuous protests the assembly went on record as opposing the use of the literature. Dr. George D. Booth, of New Orleans, and W. M. Everett, of Atlanta, made virorous appeals against this action, but the resolution was carried by a decisive vote.

One of the most important events of the day was the divesting of the Systematic Beneficence Committee of the power to nominate secretaries to and members of the executive committees and lodge it in a standing committee named by the moderator. There was lengthy debate on this subject and the majority of the resolution was narrow. Dr. A. D. P. Gilmour, of South Carolina, read an important paper on religious school work.

COUNCIL OF EAST CAROLINA

Treasurer Meares and Other Officials Re-elected—Meets Next Year in Goldsboro—Woman's Auxiliary in Session.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Edenton, N. C., May 21.—The Council of East Carolina today as yesterday, began with an early celebration of the holy communion. A large number of the women were present for their corporate communion and the presentation of their annual offering to the Bishop's fund.

The report of the committee on the state of the church provoked considerable discussion bearing upon the incomplete and inadequate reports sent in by the clergy.

Mr. Thos. D. Meares, of Wilmington, was unanimously re-elected treasurer of the diocese.

The council went into committee of the whole to discuss the financial condition of the diocese, Mr. Wilson G. Lamb, of Wilmington, in the chair. A proposition for raising funds familiarly known as the Newark plan, was brought before the council and acted on in the negative. Action on a resolution to reduce the number of delegates from each parish from four to two, elected at an open parish meeting and to pay their traveling expenses, was postponed until next year.

The council was invited to meet next year in St. Stephen's parish, Goldsboro, and the invitation was accepted.

Hon. Geo. Rountree, of Wilmington, was re-elected Chancellor. The present standing committee, the committee on finance, the trustees of the diocese, the trustees of St. Mary's School and the trustees of the Thompson Orphanage were all re-electel.

Today was woman's day at the council. The business meeting was called to order in the Opera House by the president, Mrs. Harding, of Washington, and opened by the chaplain. The address of welcome was made by Mrs. Tom Shepard and responded to by Mrs. W. E. Cox. Roll call showed 74 delegates present. The reports of the various officers all showed great increase in offering and mission study classes. The secretary, Miss Collins, gave a summary of the work for the past 24 years and by comparisons showed the wonderful progress made. The bishop then led in the noon-day prayer for missions and publicly thanked Mrs. Harding, the retiring president, for her faithful and efficient service. The offering made this morning for the bishop's fund was then announced to be $375.55, the largest amount yet given. Rev. Mr. Johnson, of Hyde county, came before the meeting to explain the use he had made of the offering given to him last year for

RICHESON'S BRAIN DECLARED NORMAL

Medical Examiner Performs the Autopsy Required By Law.

CLERGYMAN'S LAST MOMENTS

Rev. Herbert Johnson, Richeson's Spiritual Adviser, Issues Statement—Body May Not be Carried to Virginia.

Boston, May 21.—The body of Clarence V. T. Richeson, who was executed early today for the murder of Avis Linnell, lay at the North Grove street morgue tonight. Earlier in the day Dr. George B. McGrath, medical examiner of Suffolk county, performed the autopsy required by law, and declared that Richeson's brain was normal. Douglas Richeson, of Chicago, brother of the dead man, was undecided regarding the disposition of the remains and the matter probably will be settled tomorrow. It was the understanding previous to the execution that the body would be taken to Richeson's boyhood home in Virginia for burial, but circumstances arose today which prevented the plan from being carried out.

The Rev. Herbert S. Johnson, who as spiritual adviser accompanied Richeson to the electric chair, issued a statement today explaining that certain questions were asked the condemned man as he was being strapped in the chair for the purpose of taking Richeson's mind off his ordeal and to meet Richeson's wish to leave some religious testimony for the witnesses.

Mr. Johnson's statement in part, was as follows:

"The warden said that he wished I could make the man talk from the death chair as that would take his thoughts off himself and his passing could occur without a period of distressing suspense. The warden explained to me how he would give the signal for the application of the current when the man's breath was exhaled. He also requested me so far as possible, before the execution to keep Richeson from talking about it, and to keep his mind engaged with other things. * * *

"Chaplain Stebbins and I then agreed that we should induce Richeson to leave some kind of a religious testimony or the witnesses to the execution and this plan appealed to Richeson.

He had wished that he might do some good before he died. He had failed in his ministry and he thought that his testimony at his execution might lead to a religious life any witness who might not be Christian men. * * * Warden Bridges said that he would give the signal to the electrician while Richeson was making his reply.

"We thought that probably he could be strapped in the chair so quickly that only two or three questions would be necessary. Although the work of placing the man in the chair was done speedily, yet it took longer than I had estimated and consequently I had to ask more questions. These questions were extemporaneous. * * *

"Finally came the question, 'Are you willing to live or to die for Jesus' sake'? and his answer, 'I am willing to live or to die—' were the last words that he spoke as the signal was given and his life passed out.

"Why did I put that particular question? It came naturally out of my conversation with him that afternoon. In a conversation with him 48 hours before his death I sought in vain to bring him to the point where he would rather die than spend a life time considering his sin. Two and a half hours before his execution he saw our point * * * and Richeson went to his death as a brave Christian gentleman."

PRIMARIES IN CAROLINA

Raleigh Says No Forecast Can Be Made of Result Saturday

Raleigh, N. C., May 21.—The returns as far as received from the counties of North Carolina while last Saturday act primarily, to nominate county officers under the provisions of an optionary and not compulsory law passed by the last session of the Legislature, shows that only a very small number took even a "straw vote" on Jresidential preference primary.

It is, therefore, out of the question for any one to accurately forecast what the sentiment of the delegates to the Democratic State Convention next month will be.

The great majority not being instructed or enlightened in any way except their own local observations, will generally be guided by the latter impulse.

The Wilson promoters in the State strongly claim that a decided majority of the people want Wilson, and that the real power being in the people, the State convention ought and probably will send a delegation that at least will be friendly to Wilson as first choice.

From the Underwood promoters there is a loud claim because of the strength displayed in some few counties where organized fights were made, but the territory covered was infinitesimal in comparison to the area of the State.

BROOKSIDE SPORTING CLUB

Go Into Camp at Foster's Mill Pond In Nash County

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., May 21.—For a week's camp the Brookside Sporting Club, whose headquarters are in this city though its membership includes lovers of the sport throughout Eastern Carolina, went into camp on Monday morning at Foster's Mill pond on Sweetenwater creek near Williamston. While this organization has a long history of successful camps, extending over a dozen or more years, it has been customary for a long time to hold a large and well attended camp twice each year, in the Fall and in the Spring, and the event of this week is one of the largely attended and practically a reunion of the club's membership.

This camp is under the command of Major John R. Sorsby and the following gentlemen are among those attending: Messrs. W. T. Williford, W. A. May, Ed. Gordon, R. P. Lindsay, H. E. Brewer, D. D. Daughtridge, O. B. Harris, H. J. Downing, all of this city. Dr. J. C. Killebrew, of Heartease, and Mr B. F. Shelton, of Speed, are also in the party. The campers will in all probability return to their homes here about the last of the present week.

ULTIMATUM TO RAILROADS.

Wharves Shall be Open to Any Vessels That Need Them.

Mobile, May 21.—United States Attorney Ambrecht, who prosecuted the case against the Mobile and Ohio and the Southern Railway for alleged discrimination against certain docks here, replying to a statement from the railroad that the decision would practically make no changes in the present situation, said today that if the two corporations do either of the following three things, prosecution will start at once.

"Let them refuse to give berths to any vessel of any lines when they have room at their wharves, refuse to absorb charges necessary to deliver freight any vesels of any lines at some other wharves, or refuse through bills of lading in connection with any responsible lines, while issuing through bills of lading in connection with their favorite lines."

The Inter-State Commerce Commission decision followed a long series of litigation.

Constance, Baden, May 21.—Three of the eight officers and the only civilian who started on May 12 from Strausberg on a reliability flight, each carrying a pasenger in his aeroplane, completed the task set them by arriving here today. The civilian, whose name is Hirth, uniformly accomplished the best performance every day.

New York, May 21.—The Highlanders defeated the White Sox in the first game of the series by a great ninth inning rally, the score being 9 to 8. Daniels tripled and Zinn, who in the seventh drove in three runs with a homer, singled Daniels home. Chase followed with a single and Cree sacrificed. Zinn came in with the tieing run on Kuhn's passed ball. Callahan ordered Lange to pass Hartzell to take a chance on Martin. On the fourth ball, Umpire Evans called a balk as Catcher Kuhn stepped out of his box and allowed Chase to come in with the winning run.

PLAYERS ARE FINED.

But Detroit Club Will Pay Players Fines.

Philadelphia, May 21.—The American League in special meeting today fined each member of the Detorit baseball club $100 for refusing to play ball in this city last Saturday and Monday. The fine is assessed against each man who signed the telegram sent to the president of the league last Wednesday. They were fined $50 for each of the two days they refused to play. Frank J. Navin, president of the Detroit club, announced yesterday that he had promised the players he would pay their fines if they returned to the ball field, and it is understood that he will adhere to his promise.

The meeting did not censure any one except the players involved.

Tyrus Cobb, who was indefinitely suspended for attacking a spectator in New York and for whose reinstatement the players struck, was ordered to prepare an affidavit of what occurred at the ball game in New York and to forward it to the offices of the American League in Chicago.

It was further decided by the league that all club owners shall take steps to have their baseball grounds better policed, and to take such action as will prevent a recurrence of last week's affair in New York. If a player is attacked by a spectator the player is to have the right of appealing to the umpire for protection.

Mr. Johnson left for New York this afternoon to obtain affidavits from the man atacked by Tyrus Cobb and from witnesses of the assaults. When these are obtained along with that of Cobb's and other evidence that may come into the possession of Mr. Johnson, the reinstatement of the star fielder of the Detroits will be decided upon.

MRS. BRITTON IN CONTROL.

Wins Out in Fight to Vote Stock in St. Louis Club.

St. Louis, May 21.—Mrs. Helene Hathaway Britton won complete control of the St. Louis National League baseball team today. Circuit Judge Grimm enjoined Edward A. Steininger, administrator of the estate of M. Stanley Robinson, from voting at the annual stockholders' election of the American Baseball and Athletic Exhibition Company, the shares of stock willed by Robison to Mrs. Britton.

Concurrent with Judge Grimm's decision, Judge Hancock also enjoined Steininger from voting the shares of stock willed to Mrs. Britton's mother, Mrs. Sarah Robison. The two injunctions deprive Steininger, who is president of the local National League team, of control of the company.

DEATHS AT GREENSBORO.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Greensboro, N. C., May 21.—Herr Robert Roy, of the music faculty of Greensboro Female College and Salem College, has received a cablegram announcing the sudden death of this father, Herr Gustav Roy, of Germany. Mr. Roy expects to sail for Germany to visit his mother and two surviving brothers and sisters within the next few days.

James M. Needham died yesterday afternoon after a long illness, and at his residence, No. 7 Vine street, this morning, funeral services were conducted by Rev. G. H. Christenberry. The remains were carried to his former home at Siler City, for interment this afternoon. The deceased was 61 years of age, and is survived by a widow and several children.

Considerable feeling has been injected in the Democratic primary to be held Thursday to decide upon a candidate for sheriff, because of the action of High Point voters last Saturday in division of Guilford county, that Piedmont county, with High Point as the county seat, may be established. Leaders here declare that there was an agreement that the new county matter should not be made an issue in the primary campaign, but despite this agreement they now declare that High Point almost to a unanimity "knifed" the men on the ticket who have been opposed to a division of the county. E. J. Justice and Dr. J. R. Gordon received for the Legislature about 100 votes in High Point, while Thomas J. Gold, a Piedmont county man, polled 601, more than was given for all other offices combined. George Crutchfield's friends declared that in the race for sheriff he was knifed solely because he was a Greensboro man, the vote being given D. B. Stafford, of Oak Ridge, and with whom Crutchfield will contest in a second primary Thursday.

As an outgrowth of the tactics of High Point voters Saturday many startling rumors are going the rounds one of which is that the Piedmont county advocates will name an independent for the Legislature to oppose Dr. J. R. Gordon, the primary nominee. This independent would be expected to draw the Republican and "Piedmont" vote. Another rumor of no less startling nature locally is that an effort to pass a resolution forbidding any nominee of the party to work for a division of the old county will be made when the party convention is held here Saturday.

CALL OF THE MINISTRY.

Presbyterian Churches "Pastorless and Shepherdless" Says Report.

Louisville, Ky., May 21.—After the surprising declaration that there are 2,000 churches in the United States "pastorless and shepherdless", had been made in the General Assembly of the Northern Presbyterian Church today, resolutions were adopted urging that all Presbyterian commissioners (laymen) keep in close touch with young men who might be candidates for the ministry.

Rev. Joseph W. Cochran, of Philadelphia, discussing a minister's "living chances," declared: "We hear advices to the effect that a man, to be a minister, must starve. I never knew that to be true. I'll admit that the salaries are not princely, but it can't be remedied except by this very assembly."

Immediately Rev. Dr. Henry J. Becker, of Dayton, O., interrupted:

"Hundreds of gray-haired men in the ministry are annually dismissed or cast aside. Men of brains, of education and good records are eliminated for no other reason than that they are 'too old'."

To this Dr. Becker attributed the gradual decline of successful candidates for the ministry.

The young men need the advice and counsel of their elders, but now there are too few elders.

The General Assembly today proceeded with consideration of a report on a new intermediate catechism and a mass of other technical tasks.

FIRE IN CHARLOTTE.

Damage of About $80,000 to V. C. Fertilizer Plant.

Charlotte, N. C., May 21.—Fire resulting in a loss estimated to be about $80,000 razed the main dump shed of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company last night. The plant is located south of the city on the tracks of the Southern Railway Company. The fire was discovered about 10:30 o'clock and the local fire department responded to the call for assistance immediately. Before the scene was reached, the extinguisher plant of the Southern Cotton Oil Company and of the Atherton mill had been brought into service, but the fire was of such proportions that it was impossible to save the building where it originated and the effectiveness of the work of the department was demonstrated in saving the remaining buildings and their contents, the value of which is roughly estimated at $1,000,000.

Savannah, Ga., May 21.—Robbers made a determined effort last night to get into the vault of the Real Estate Bank & Trust Co., but were foiled when they struck the two-inch steel casing that protects the funds of the institution. The police arrested one suspect this morning.

a horse and buggy. Immediately a collection was taken and $140 given him for this purpose. Rev. Mrs. Tyndall, of Fayetteville, then presented his cause, a mission house in the mill village of Victory. Rev. Mr. Smith, of the Orphanage, thanked all for past efforts and urged continuance of the same. Mrs. Webb, of Wilmington, then thanked the people of Edenton for their unbounded hospitality after which the doxology was sung and Rev. Dallas Tucker, of Greenville, pronounced the benediction.

The social feature of the council was a delightful garden party given this afternoon in the grounds of Beverly Hall, the beautiful home of Dr. Richard Dillard. The closing service of the council was a splendid mission. The service tonight was with the Rev. James M. Owens, of Norfolk, as the special speaker.

TO CORRECT COTTON FAULTS

Conference On Saturday at Savannah To Consider Situation

Savannah, May 21.—At the Savannah cotton exchange on Saturday at noon a general conference of local cotton men and those from the interior of the State will be held for the purpose of outlining some action to eliminate the present causes of dissension between American and German cotton merchants.

Between 60 and 80 invitations have been sent out by the local exchanges to interior handlers of the staple to meet here on Saturday to discuss the various features; give their views and offer suggestions as to the mode of eliminating the difference because of the penalizations exacted recently at Bremen by arbitration boards, which is said to have cost American cotton men $250,000 in the past six months.

New Orleans, May 21.—The twentieth annual convention of the National Railway Mail Association was called to order here today by W. H. Chandler, president of the New Orleans division. The woman's auxiliary was also called to order by Mrs. Mae Jones, of Minneapolis.

Studebaker
FLANDERS "20" Studebaker Automobiles Two Models E-M-F "30"

Do You Want Your Money's Worth?

Flanders "20" Touring Car, $800

The next time an automobile salesman tries to sell you a car at a discount, tell him that the old "something for nothing" story can't fool you.

The best automobiles in the world are sold for their list price, not a penny less. They are worth it. But the lame ducks, the second rates, the nondescript and assembled automobiles are in the public market looking for the highest bidder. Look out they don't get you. If gold-brick cars are not worth their list price, how much are they worth? Nobody knows. Cut price deals are frauds.

But if you want a car of one price to all and worth every cent of it, get either a Studebaker E-M-F "30," $1100, or Flanders "20," $800. You can trust them. You get all that you pay for and that is more than you get with any other car at near their price. Studebaker guarantees them. That's the big reason. No matter what price temptation falls in your way, Studebaker E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20" cars are far bigger bargains, because in years of good service and satisfaction, they pay big returns.

We can prove it—Send for our new catalogue

FRUIT PROSPECT IS BRIGHT

No Further Danger From Cold—Masons of Higher Degree in Session. Thirteenth Electrocution. Other News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 21.—State Horticulturalist W. M. Hutt says that the extreme limit for late frosts that might injure the fruit crop in this State having passed, he feels absolutely safe in forecasting a record yield of all varieties this season in all parts of the State.

There has not been reported, he says, a single untoward thing that might give any variety of fruit a setback in yield. He thinks now that the growers need only have an eye to judicious thinning of the fruit to prevent injury to the trees and give opportunity for the best development of the fruit. This thinning is in progress, especially of apples and peaches, in many sections of the State. Also thorough and careful spraying is needed to keep off insects and disease.

On Friday of this week there will take place the electrocution of Geo. Wilkins, the Nash county negro sentenced for wife murder. There seems to be little or no prospect for executive clemency. This will be the 13th electrocution that has taken place since the Legislature, two years ago, passed the act requiring that all death sentences in this State shall be by electrocution in the State's prison at Raleigh.

Dr. and Mrs. Hubert Haywood have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lucy Williams, and Mr. James Kemp Plummer, Jr., of this city, the ceremony to take place on Wednesday, June 12th, in Christ Church, this city.

Governor Kitchin delivered the address today for the commencement exercises of the Normal and Industrial Institute, of Albemarle, Stanly county. He will return to the city tomorrow.

The Grand Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, the Grand Council Royal and Select Masons, and the Grand Commandery Knights Templar, convened here this evening for a three days' annual session that has promise of much enjoyment, without any disturbing business contest and with an attendance that shows progressive condition of the three super orders of Masonry.

The Grand Chapter opened its 64th annual convention tonight and the opening ceremonies were followed by a banquet for which there were 200 covers—100 visiting chapter Masons and 100 Raleigh Chapter Masons.

Tomorrow there will be sessions of the Order of the High Priesthood, the Grand Chapter and the Grand Council at different hours during the day. The three orders will complete their business for adjournment by Thursday morning. Mr. Hugh A. Murrill, of Charlotte, is grand high priest; Prof. J. T. Alderman, Henderson, is grand master of the Grand Council of the Royal and Select Masons, and W. C. Brown is Grand Commander of the Knights Templar. There are 42 chapters in the State with 2,850 members.

The Rocky Mount Steam Bakery Co., of Rocky Mount, is chartered with $25,000 capital authorized and $4,000 subscribed by F. S. Gardner, T. L. Bland and others.

Friends of Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes and Mrs. Grimes will be glad to learn that Mrs. Grimes is steadily, though slowly, recovering from the critical illness that has kept her at home for several weeks. At one time her life was despaired of, but there is thought to be a very good prospect now for her restoration to health.

JURY IS COMPLETE

Testimony In Myrtle Hawkins Case Will Begin Today

Asheville, N. C., May 21.—When the Hendersonville court adjourned this afternoon the jury which will decide the fate of the seven defendants in the Mrytle Hawkins case, was complete. The taking of evidence will start tomorrow morning when court convenes at 9:30 o'clock. The jury is composed of the following men: J. R. Weel, J. B. Merrill, Jesse Huntley, P. G. Ward, T. B. Ward, W. M. Maxwell, J. F. Young, Thomas Young, J. L. Leverett, D. D. Dalton, C. F. Freemen and B. B. Souther.

All the jurors are farmers, with the exception of Mr. Souther, who is foreman of the Henderson county chain gang. The Wards are father and son and the Youngs are brothers.

AMERICAN COUNTESS DIVORCED.

Charged Cruelty and Count De Beaufort Made no Defense.

Chicago, May 21.—The Countess de Beaufort, wife of Count Jacques Alexander Von Murik de Beaufort and formerly Miss Irma Kilgallen, daughter of a wealthy Chicago steel manufacturer, today obtained a divorce. The suit was not contested. The Count was not present.

Cruelty was alleged by the Countess. She averred that the Count had beaten her several times when she refused to ask her father for money with which to pay the Count's debts.

The marriage took place in London September 15, 1910. The Count was forcibly evicted from his father-in-law's home more than a year ago.

WIDOW FOUND MURDERED.

Kimono Stuffed in Mouth, Towel About Neck, and Head Bruised.

Boston, May 21.—Mrs. Lillian Jewer, a widow, 30 years old, was found murdered in her apartments in the South End today. Her nostrils were stuffed with string, her mouth choked with a kimona, a towel was tightly tied about her neck, and there were bruises on her head. According to Medical Examiner Leary, the woman had been dead since Friday.

The body was discovered by a man who had a key to the woman's room. He had given her financial assistantce at times, he said.

The police said tonight that they hoped to make an arrest soon.

ALLEGED OFFER TO BRIBE

Farrah and Wife, Syrians of Mt. Olive, In Trouble

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Goldsboro, N. C., May 21.—Quite a little excitement was created here yesterday by the alleged attempt of a Syrian, E. J. Farrar, of Mt. Olive, to bribe Samuel W. Smallwood, referee in bankruptcy who is here to hear evidence relative to Farrah's petition in bankruptcy. E. J. Farrah and Corie Farrah, his wife, doing a merchandise business at Mt. Olive, filed a petition in bankruptcy some time ago, and at the hearing which began yesterday morning with Hon. Samuel W. Smallwood, of Newbern, presiding, the attorneys representing the creditors produced evidence to show that Farrah and his wife had a few days prior to filing this petition removed goods to the amount of about $6,000 from their store at Mt. Olive and secreted same at some place unknown to the witnesses. The goods which were hauled away at night according to the evidence given, were said to be goods that had just been received by the firm, and the contention of the creditors is that it was a clever scheme to swindle them of their money, and they are praying the court to order Farrah and wife to produce the goods in question or their value in money. After hearing this evidence an adjournment was taken for dinner and during this time Farrah approached Mr. Smallwood and drawing a large roll of bank notes from his pocket, amount unknown, offered them to Mr. Smallwood to decide the matter in his favor. Mr. Mr. Smallwood indignantly refused the offer and when he resumed the hearing at 2 P. M. announced the facts to the attorneys. The attorney representing Farrah and wife immediately withdrew from the case saying to the court that they "refused to represent further such a man as Farrah." The referee ordered Farrah and wife to produce the $6,000 of assets they had made way with and at the request of the attorneys for the creditors placed Farrah and his wife in charge of the deupty marshal until they should give a bond of $4,000 to remain within the jurisdiction of the court until the matter was settled. At a late hour tonight this bond had not been given. Mr. Smallwood was very fair to Farrah and his wife and seemed very reluctant to place them under arrest, and stated that he wished to give them every chance to do the right thing and that despite Farrah's outrageous actions as to offering the bribe he wished to give him all the assistance possible to straighten his affairs. Attorneys Pierce and Davis represent the creditors, and Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson and Langston & Allen were representing Farrah and his wife. The last three gentlemen were taken completely by surprise at the action of their client and positively refuse to represent them a moment longer.

WILSON IN CAROLINA.

New Jerseyman Managers. Satisfied With Results in This State.

Washington, D. C., May 20.—Governor Wilson's Washington press bureau issue the following tonight: "Gov. Woodrow Wilson ran ahead of all other candidates in the primaries and conventions that were held in 42 of the 96 counties in North Carolina Saturday last. A telegram from National Committeeman Daniels states that the New Jersey Governor was given instruction in nine counties, while he divided with Chairman Underwood in three counties.

"Mr. Underwood also obtained instructions in three counties. Speaker Clark split even with Governor Wilson in Dare, the smallest county in the State.

"Governor Wilson won a victory in many townships where the counties failed to express a preference between the presidential candidates. The larger number of counties took no action one way or the other, but among those that expressed a preference Governor Wilson is in the lead.

"Many counties will hold conventions this week and the friends of Governor Wilson are confident that North Carolina will give him the 24 votes of the State in the Baltimore convention."

P. A. B. Widener Establishes Fund for Children

Philadelphia, May 21.—The wills of George D. Widener and his son, Harry Elkins Widener, who met death when the Titanic sank, were probated today in Norristown.

At the same time P. A. B. Widener, the father and grandfather of the Titanic victims, executed a deed of trust for $4,000,000 in 4 per cent securities to be used as an endowment for the Widener Memorial School for Crippled Children.

The will of Harry Elkins Widener provides that his valuable library shall be given to Harvard University, to be known as the Harry Elkins Widener Memorial, whenever the university makes proper arrangements for receiving the books. His entire estate, the value of which is fixed at $150,000, is left to his mother, with whom the will says he has had an understanding regarding the disposal of his library to Harvard.

George D. Widener's will provides that his widow shall receive one-third outright, together with the household furnishings. The remainder of the estate is placed in trust for the benefit of his children and grandchildren.

AFTER MEASLES.

Young Girl Was Badly Run Down—What She Did.

Parents too often make the mistake of thinking that certain diseases of childhood, such as measles and whooping cough, are harmless.

Measles is very likely to weaken the kidneys and leave serious effects unless the system is built up with a reliable strength creator such as Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil.

Miss Marion Shaver, a young girl of Luzerne, N. Y., says: "I had measles several months ago and it left me in very bad condition, weak and rundown. After several months of this, I took Vinol to build me up. It has done me much good. I have gained both strength and weight and my appetite is good."

In all weakened and run-down conditions of the body, from any cause, Vinol should be used to create new blood and increase strength. We guarantee it to do this and will pay back your money if it does not. Robt. R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

COLUMBUS COUNTY PRIMARY

Depot At Clarendon Burned—Delegates to County Convention—Fatal Accident—High School Class Entertainment

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., May 21.—The depot at Clarendon was burned down Saturday night. The fire was discovered about 10 o'clock, but too late to save any of the contents of the building which was full of freight. The fire is thought to have been caused by rats as it caught from the inside of the building.

The township primary convention was duly called to order last Saturday at 2 o'clock by Acting Chairman R. C. Powell. The purpose of the convention being to elect 27 delegates to the county convention. The following were chosen: Dr. H. B. Maxwell, R. C. Powell, Donald McRackan, Dr. W. R. Davis, Ed. Schwartz, L. V. Grady, E. M. Toon, Jackson Greer, Lon Butler, Will Collier, Walter H. Powell, J. I. Williamson, Homer Lyon, J. A. Baldwin, W. A. Harrelson, J. G. Hooks, D. M. Thompson, J. B. Schulken, John Davis, D. L. Smith, Chas. Ward, John C. Hooks, J. T. McKenzie, R. P. Britt, D. J. Lewis, E. Garland Brown, M. L. Gore. It was moved and seconded that the chairman and secretary be added to the Whiteville township list as delegates.

The following were elected to constitute the Whiteville precinct committee: R. C. Powell, Homer L. Lyon, W. A. Harrelson, Will Collier and Dr. H. B. Maxwell.

It was moved and seconded that A. J. Maxwell be endorsed for Corporation Commissioner, and Locke Craig for Governor.

At a test ballot taken at the convention for President Underwood secured 8, Wilson 7 and Harmon 5 votes.

Mr. Robt. Moore, employed by the Whiteville Lumber Co., was the victim of a very deplorable accident Saturday morning as he was going to his work in the woods of this company. As a result both legs were cut off, one just below the knee and the other above the knee, the young man dying soon after the accident. Mr. Moore was sitting on the end of a flat car in front of the engine, when the cars came uncoupled, throwing Mr. Moore to the ground, when the engine passed over him, cutting off both legs. He was at once given medical attention and hastened to the James Walker Memorial Hospital in Wilmington where he died on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Moore was a splendid young man and was popular among a wide circle of friends. He was a son of Mr. J. H. Moore, of Old Dock, and a very sad feature of his untimely death is that he had only been married two months, having in March married Miss Dora Suggs, a daughter of Mr. W. M. Suggs, of Old Dock. The remains were brought back to Whiteville Saturday evening and on Sunday carried to the family plat at Old Dock where they were laid to rest. The family has the sympathy of hundreds of friends.

A very delightful event was the elegant reception tendered the graduating class of the Whiteville High School Friday evening by Mayor and Mrs. J. B. Schulken when they threw open their handsome home in their honor. This beautiful home was decorated throughout with lights and flowers and presented a lovely scene as it opened wide its doors to welcome the guests who came to honor the bright young graduates of 1912. At the door the guests were met by Misses Lucy Powell and Lena Stultz who ushered them to the receiving line composd of Mr. and Mrs. Schulken and the young honoress, Miss Kathleen Baldwin, Belton Thompson, Willie Schulken, Jas. Schulken and Allen Hester. The graduating class this year has only one young lady and the young men who finish this year can always know that in this classmate they have had one of the sweetest, gentlest and lovliest young women in our county. From here the guest were shown the punch bowl, presided over by Misses Lois Formyduvall and Mary Lou Powell. After the game of Contest of Fortune the prize of which was won by Prof. W. R. Smithwick and presented to Miss Ethel Maultsby, delicious refreshments consisting of a salad course, block cream, fruit and pound cake were served. At a late hour the guests left reluctantly, having enjoyed to the fullest one of the most charming evenings of their lives.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates, or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Wednesday, May 22, 1912.

A bone-spavined fossil would have no earthly showing in a campaign like this.

Some men think more of their chances than they do of the opportunities of the Democratic party.

Wll Street quotes money as "quiet" but it has been doing a lot of talk during the campaign between Roosevelt and Taft.

A distinguished candidate for President asserts that he is "running on principle." It is hoped he will run on a snag next November.

In order to ascertain whether Ty Cobb is capable of taking care of his record as a batter, sit on the grandstand and yell "bonehead" at Ty.

Richeson's resignation to his fate in the electric chair doutbless was the paralysis of despair. When all hope is abandoned stolidity takes the place of reason.

Sh! "Don't start any boom for me," says Col. Bryan. That is, not right now. Wait till the National Democratic Convention meets and then start something.

A New Jersey police justice sent a woman to jail for kicking a policeman on the chin. Evidently the cop was facing the music while he was attempting to put the woman behind the bars.

A St. Louis paper says a Missouri girl is suing a man for $4,000 for stealing a kiss from her. If the fellow's got the money, the jury's verdict will reaffirm the Biblical truth that "a fool and his money soon parts."

A man whose vernacular is that of the prize fighter and whose manners are those of the slugger cuts a sorry figure when he puts on the robes of a peace advocate. The individual who attempts two contradictory roles in the same play is 'steen kinds of an ill-disguised humbug. A man is known by his acts and not by his irresponsible claptrap.

A German nobleman committed suicide in Chicago a few days ago because he claimed that he lost "the finest woman in the world." Probably she was the finest in his estimation but the poor fellow had never been in North Carolina where all of them are the finest.

"My greatest asset is that I have never been excited over my candidacy one way or the other," says President Taft's Rough Rider opponent for the Presidential nomination. President Taft is the one who got excited. All the Colonel did was to indulge in maniacal glee at the way at fat man could cut capers when he is forced to do it.

Before Teddy gets over the surprises of the campaign he will find out that the political bosses he put out of business are as fat and saucy as the trusts that he thinks he busted while he was President. The trusts which had the laugh on him have turned the laugh on President Taft. They have been busted so often that it makes them laugh at the idea.

During his service at Washington, Congressman Gudger voted for what he considered the best interests of the people of his district. Those opposed to him sprung the cry that his position was undemocratic, but in the primary contest in his district, the Tenth, a few days ago he was renominated. The people seem to be the judges of the faithfulness of their representatives and they pay little attention to the outs who start something just to get in.

ANTI-THIRD TERM MOVEMENT.

It is un-American to favor a third term for any President, whether he is a Democrat or Republican. This thing of resenting third termism on the part of Americans is no mere sentiment among people who are jealous of their liberty. It was born in them and was handed down to them from their ancestors who left Europe with deep-seated prejudices against monarchies and despotisms. They instilled it into their sons and the prejudice has been handed down to us from ancestors who knew what the yoke was before they settled in America.

The wisdom of the fathers in their determination not to grant too long a lease of power to any one man has been justified in Europe and America. Laying aside ancient history, we have a modern example in the ambition of Napoleon who made himself emperor of France. Coming closer to home, we have an example of third termism and multi-termism in the long reign of Diaz over the Mexican Republic. Our Mexican neighbors tolerated it too long, and it required revolution to get rid of the Diaz dynasty. The brilliant Col. Henry Watterson refers to it as the Diazification of Mexico, and we are all living witnesses of the evil of it, the final danger of it—war and demoralization. If we were to tolerate third termism with the dictatorial Roosevelt in the saddle, how long would it be before history would record a reaction in the principles of Americans? We might sooner or later have history to refer to the Rooseveltism of America.

The opposition to third termism is American. It is not simply Democratic—not Republican, and all true Americans without repard to party should resist it. They did so in 1880 when the controlling sentiment of the country was against a third term for a hero so idolized as was President Grant. Old time Republicans bitterly opposed a third term for the military President. There was then a regular anti-third term campaign among Republicans, and we fancy that it will be so today. In fact, a large anti-third term movement has been started among Missouri Republicans, many of whom were old liners who took part against a third term for General Grant, although personally friendly towards him.

At St. Louis a few days ago a convention of Republicans organized a strong movement to oppose to the bitter end the re-election of any President for a third term, regardless of objections based on the fitness of the aspirant. They admit that the action they have taken was strongly accentuated by the autocratic and tyranic personality of Roosevelt—the nerve of him! At the St. Louis meeting those Missouri Republicans adopted the following preamble and resolutions and are circulating it for the signature of Republicans prior to the Chicago convention:

"Whereas, We firmly believe that 'the wise custom which limits the President to two terms regards the substance and not the form', and means that no person should hold that high office for more than two terms, whether such terms are consecutive or not; and,

"Whereas, Theodore Roosevelt, in violation of said custom, in violation of his former declarations and promises, seeks by means heretofore unprecedented, to become the nominee of the Republican party for the presidency;

"Now, therefore, we, the undersigned, members of the Republican party of the United States of America, hereby pledge ourselves that, even in case he would become such nominee, we will not support him, but use such honorable means as we deem most effective to defeat his election."

Action such as has been taken by the Missouri Republicans is the only thing that would save the Republican party, which first has to purge itself of dominancy by interests opposed to those of the people. In the preliminary skirmish, that party has third-termism to fight and in its subsequent political battles for existence it has to fight against control by plutocracy. Third termism would kill it dead. It might survive protectionism, but it would never know what struck it if it goes into this fight with a third term nominee as its leader.

That would-be leader, too, is a man who, in his two terms, furnished us another example illustrating the wisdom of anti-third termism. At the end of his second term he dictated his successor to his party and now he is attempting to dictate his overthrow to gratify his own ambition. If he can select his successor in one instance he can in another. Indeed, already Senator LaFollette says he has been promised to be chosen by Roosevelt as his next successor if he would support the Rough Rider. Whether that be true or not, it was quite possible when Taft received Roosevelt's mantle in 1908. It might be possible in another instance if Roosevelt should ever get tired playing the role of Diaz. We have no idea that, if he were nominated, he would ever be given a chance by patriotic Republicans and Democrats. They are jealous of their liberty. They have a principle to sustain first, and politics afterwards.

LIKE BOSS, LIKE PARTY.

Doubtless there are some bad bosses and some good bosses, and then there is the "easy boss" and the corrupt boss. It might be said, however, that no party is better than its boss, for the boss is made by the party and but for a willing party it would not have the kind of boss it puts up with.

When a political party has an unscrupulous, unprincipled, corrupt and dictatorial boss, it proves that the party he bosses is composed of a set of mutts or subservient tools. It indicates that the men of the party are willing to be led around by the nose. The boss only rules by the consent of the governed, and when a party consents to be bossed it evidently is composed of a set so cowardly that they are not susceptible of righteous indignation. When a notorious boss dominates over and dictates to a political party he knows his followers haven't got the grit to insurge. He knows he is dealing with a lot of doughfaces and he counts on sticking his fingers in their eyes whenever he gets good-and-ready.

However, not all political leaders are bosses, in the common acceptation of that word, and there is a great deal of truth in what the esteemed Chester (Pa.) Republican says about it. Says that paper:

"All this talk about bossed and unbossed political party conventions is poppycock. In every assemblage of three or more men (and women if you please) there is always a leader or boss. It is human nature for some one or more individuals to be stronger than others, or to be vested with authority to control others. Undoubtedly Senator Penrose controlled or bossed Republican State conventions in recent years, just as Senator Flinn held the reins in the last State Convention. Flinn managed the preliminary caucus that ratified a slate; he was chairman of the committee on resolutions in the convention, and later deposed the chairman of the convention and managed it from the stage. In other words, all political bosses (or politely termed leaders) virtualy say: 'We don't want anything we are not entitled to, but we consider we are entitled to everything!'"

Senator Penrose was boss of the Republican party in Pennsylvania no longer than the members of his party wanted him to be. They were his willing subjects and if they tolerated anything wrong on his part the party was responsible for it. A party which puts up with a crooked boss is no better than the boss and it is not entitled to the confidence of any honest, self respecting man, it matters not what his political convictions may be.

Boss Flinn, who whipped out Boss Penrose, may be as big a boss as any other boss, but the question is whether he is worthy to be followed as a leader. If he is not, the Republican party in Pennsylvania can be saddled with the blame. If there is such a thing as a boss instead of a leader, the people as a whole are responsible for it—thise men who condemn wrong yet hold aloof from performing their civic duties. The man who is not willing to go out and fight for honest and right is the man who assents to political corruption. When a State's best men stand for high ideals and public integrity, they will go out to political meetings and put up such a fight that it will make any boss take care how he cracks his whip.

A clean leader is different from a boss. Men have to be led and generaled. Some men have to do the leading in religion, politics and war. It is the man with the ability and the initiative who takes the lead.

"Order is Heaven's first law—this confest,
Some are and must be greater than the rest."

"MADE IN CHARLOTTE" PRODUCTS.

Charlotte began on Monday the most notable celebration is has ever held in perpetuation of the heroism of the North Carolinians who assembled in Charlotte May 20th, 1775, and adopted independence resolves or issued a declaration of independence, whichever you prefer. The deed was there and the patriotism manifest whatever substance and shape the action of the brave spirits of 1775 assumed.

Not the least notable feature of Charlotte's great celebration, is a local industrial exposition—an exhibition of "Made in Charlotte" products. The industrial exhibit was made in Charlotte's capacious auditorium, and we understand that it was an exhibition highly creditable if not marvelous for that progressive centre of Southern industrialism. Charlotte is preeminently a manufacturing city and its prestige now and its future achievements are based on its industrial potentialities.

Charlotte began to manufacture before the days of hydro-electric power, and now that the Queen City is the "City of Electrical Energy", she is logically to be a great industrial centre. Her vast advantages consist of unlimited power by transmission, and Charlotte is as inevitably bound to be a manufacturing city as that the Catawba river flows near by her on its way to the ocean.

In exhibiting the numerous manufactures produced in the factories of that city, Charlotte sets all our cities an example that should be inspiring. Charlotte has something to show, and Wilmington can have such an exposition some of these days if we will avail ourselves of the splendid possibilities which exist here for many lines of manufactures.

A machine politician's ways are past finding out till the "soapbox primary" is over.

There is a great market for dairy products and no end to the possibilities for dairy enterprises. Millions of pounds of substitutes for butter are being manufactured in the United States and we are consuming an immense quantity of it right here in North Carolina. Europe annually produces 16,000,000 pounds of near-butter with cocoanut oil as a base. Let us get busy with co-operative dairy enterprises in North Carolina.

CURRENT COMMENT.

All Republican voters should remember what Taft has said against Roosevelt and what Roosevelt has said against Taft and come into the Democratic party.—Houston Chronicle.

Tom Clawson, of the Wilmington Star, swats the center of the bull's eye with this: "A Democrat is false to his party when he holds an office that some other Democrat wants." That is packing a whole page of truth into just seventeen words. — Greensboro News.

Irrigation by sprinkling is being tried in California and is meeting with favor, the only drawback being the cost of installation, which comes to about $150 an acre. For offset it saves the cost of leveling the ground, as is required for irrigation at grade, and it is said that by turning on the spray during a cold night, the air can be kept above the freezing point.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Now that Savannah's fire department is thoroughly up-to-date with motor-driven engines, will it be necessary, on account of the skyscrapers, to buy a fire-aeroplane soon? Somebody has suggested that aeroplanes could very well be utilized for fighting fires, carrying chemicals up above a burning building and dropping them in the fashion of bombs. If aeroplanes are found to be the best apparatus for fighting fire, why, of course, Savannah will have a fleet of fire-planes.—Savannah News.

Things have come to an extraordinary pass, indeed, as Mr. Watterson remarks, though in much more emphatic language, in that celebrated poem of his, when a man can't wallop his own jackass. But things have come to an even stranger pass when President Taft undertakes to "wallop" Mr. Roosevelt for his failure to toe the mark squarely on the tariff. Yet this is what he did in Ohio Saturday in one of his speeches, and, sad to say for the Colonel, with more truth than campaign poetry. His charge that Mr. Roosevelt, after evading the tariff issue as long as he could, was now "painting something to sell and not to use" was rather a dexterous uppercut for a generally rather clumsy campaigner. But when we think of these two in a dispute over the tariff, we inevitably recur to the ancient quarrel between the pot and the kettle.—Baltimore Sun.

The net of the result of the primaries held last Saturday is that most of the counties merely elected delegates without any instructions as to State officials or any candidate for the Presidency. Of the counties that did act, Wilson has a strong lead for the Presidency. Perhaps fifteen counties do not have either township primaries or mass meetings, and those counties will hold mass meetings next Saturday. County conventions will be held in all counties on Saturday, except Wake, in which by a special act of the Legislature it holds a primary June 1st. There is now another strong argument in favor of a uniform system of ascertaining the will of the people. The present hybrid system is so loose and disjointed as to need to be displaced by a uniform law. Those who oppose primaries should suggest something better, and should remember Jefferson's wise saying: "The remedy for the evils of Democracy is more Democracy."—Raleigh News and Observer.

Wasnington, May 21.—Agreement today by the House to the Senate's amendment of the cotton acreage bill, which eliminated a section to abolish cotton condition reports in June and July, placed the bill before the President for signature. The bill would defer the cotton acreage report of the Department of Agriculture from June to July of each year. Condition reports will be made beginning in June as heretofore.

Escapes An Awful Fate

A thousand tongues could not express the gratitude of Mrs. J. E. Cox, of Joliet, Ill., for her wonderful deliverance from an awful fate. "Typhoid pneumonia had left me with a dreadful cough," she writes. "Sometimes I had such awful coughing spells I thought I would die. I could get no help from doctor's treatment or other medicines till I used Dr. King's New Discovery. But I owe my life to this wonderful remedy for I scarcely cough at all now." ANOTHER CLEAN-UP DAY.

Rocky Mount Back Yards Will be Ridded of Trash June 3rd

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., May 21.—Last year the board of aldermen scored a ten strike in their giving to Rocky Mount a clean-up jubilee, the first in the city's history. This year they have decided to duplicate the trick and this morning after a conference of certain committee members, the date of the second annual clean-up jubilee was decided, and on the morning of June 3rd, the increased force of sanitary workers start the merry job of ridding the back yards of the trash and filth. The committee has drafted a call to the housewives and property owners of the city and it is expected that they shall clean up the back yards and get the trash in a pile or piles, and some time during this first week in June the city shall have its officer call and the sanitary wagons will remove the trash.

COMMITTEES FOR THE YEAR

Chamber of Commerce Begins New Administration With Renewed Interest In the Progress of City—Committees

With the selection of the various committees for the ensuing year by the executive committee in session yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce begins the new administration with renewed activity for a greater scope of endeavor in behalf of the industrial and commercial interests of the city.

The possibilities for manifold improvements along general lines as shown in the many excellent reports submitted by the chairman of the various committees at the annual meeting, held May 9th, has awakened a new sense of enterprise, and the naming of the new committees by the present efficient executive board has been awaited with great interest. These reports, which dealt with the various activities of the organization, contained many valuable suggestions and have been made a part of the records of the Chamber.

The meeting yesterday was presided over by President M. J. Corbett and members of the committee present were Messrs. L. E. Hall, J. VanB. Metts, C. Van Leuven and H. Lacy Hunt. The committees were named after careful consideration in order that they might meet with the approval of the members and to get the best results in carrying out plans underway for the present year.

The marked progress made by Wilmington in the past year, nowhere better enumerated than in the reports of the various committees at the annual meeting, will serve as an impetus for greater efforts by the new administration. Within the near future the chairmen of the various committees will be invited to meet with the executive committee to discuss genral matters and plans to work upon for the coming year.

The committees announced by the executive board yesterday, are as follows:

Manufacturing and Business Enterprises Committee—E. C. Holt, chairman; J. B. Mercer, George W. Kidder, E. N. Clark, C. Van Leuven, W. J. Craig, B. F. Keith, D. McEachern, M. S. Willard and A. B. Skelding.

Cape Fear Club Postpones Consideration of Offer for Property.

A meeting of the members of the Cape Fear Club was held last night to consider the question of accepting an offer which has been made for the club property at northwest corner of Front and Chestnut streets, but after a long discussion of the matter in all its phases, the members desired further time to consider the matter, and adjournment was taken until May 31st, at 8:30 o'clock P. M., at which time it is thought that the offer will be either accepted or declined.

While it has not been definitely given out, it is understood that the offer which the club is considering is in the neighborhood of $100,000. The property is considered very valuable, having a frontage on Front street of 132 feet and running back on Chesnut about half a block. Probably 100 members of the club gathered for the meeting last night.

BEACH SEASON OPENS APACE

In Less Than Ten Days Hotels and Boarding Houses Will Be Open —Resort Already Shows Some Life

Preparations go steadily on for the opening June 1st, less than 10 days from now, of what gives every promise of being the greatest season in the history of Wrightsville Beach, the famed seaside resort. There is much activity at the beach now. The hotels, boarding houses and private cottages are being put in condition and a number of new features are being added. Already large numbers of people have moved down for the season. One of the hotels, Hanover Inn, has opened already for the reception of guests.

Making good his promise to give beach visitors and cottagers telephone service earlier than usual this year, as well as o increase the efficiency of service when and wherever possible, District Manager S. D. Lucas Monday opened the exchange at Wrightsville Beach. There were only a few connections at work the first day, but yesterday there were 20 connections with the beach exchange. The beach exchange will continue in operation until the season closes, which may be later than usual this year. Manager Lucas said yesterday that already he had signed contracts for 43 beach telephones. These are to be put in commission right away. Last season the maximum number of beach connection was 46, so it can easily be seen that the service will in all probability be more extensive this season. Late in the season, probably some time in June, the telephones on Wrightsville Sound will be served from the beach exchange.

There is no busier place in the beach than at the Seashore Hotel. Capt. Edgar L. Hinton, the genial manager of the fine hostelry, has been at the hotel for two weeks or more getting everything in readiness for opening, aided by a large corps of workmen. During this time the cafe and one wing of the hotel have been open. Business at the cafe has been surprisingly good and greater results are expected from it when the season gets on in full blast. Captain Hinton has personally supervised the laying out of the splendid regulation tennis court, which is a new feature and one which the guests of the hotel will no doubt greatly appreciate. The court will be one of the finest anywhere in this section. Capt. Hinton has recently purchased 50 settees, some to be placed around the tennis court and others to be placed on the beach for the use of spectators.

Probably one of the most important new features of the Seashore Hotel for the season is a moving picture theatre which will be opened in the ball room of the hostelry. It will be open every night from 8 to 11 P. M., and will be in charge of an experienced man from Atlanta, Ga. The absence of a moving picture show on the beach has been commented upon by many visitors during the past few seasons, and the theatre to be opened by Capt. Hinton promises to "fill a long felt want." The theatre will not only receive the patronage of the guests of the hotel, but will draw from other hotels, boarding houses, etc., on the beach.

The orchestra of six pieces will arrive in time to play on the opening day. The orchestra is said to be one of the finest at any seaside resort in the country and will add much to the attractiveness of the Seashore Hotel.

Mr. W. E. Pennington, the clever chief clerk, who has held this position for the past eight or ten years, is expected to arrive one day this week. He will be surrounded by a corps of competent assistants. Mrs. Seay, formerly of Elizabeth College, Charlotte, the housekeeper, has already arrived and with a corps of maids has been getting the rooms in readiness for the opening. The pier and yards have been re-wired for electric lights and the place will be brilliantly illuminated as usual.

The steward and his force of white cooks and bakers will arrive on the New York steamer next Monday and before the end of the week everything in this department will be ready for the opening.

The management of the moving picture theatre may also put in a system of box-ball alleys under canvas. This, however, has not yet been decided upon.

Capt. Wells will again be in charge of the Seashore Hotel fleet of fishing and sailing craft. He will have three sharpies and a large naphtha launch, besides other craft at his command. Fishing promises to be unusually good off Wrightsville Beach this season and a large number of the visitors to the resort will doubtless find their chief delight in this sport.

Capt. Hinton has received already reservations that indicate that his hostelry will be filled practically the entire season. Three families from New Orleans have secured reservations for May 29th, before the hotel opens, and will be here for three or four weeks.

Mr. Jesse Cougch, the new manager of the Oceanic Hotel, another of Wrightsville Beach's popular hostelries, has arrived from Atlanta, Ga., where he was manager of the Majectic Hotel, and is arranging everything at the Oceanic for the opening on June 1st. He was accompanied by Mrs. Couch. He will have an able and capable corps of assistants in every department and the owners of the hotel believe that the hostelry will be a greater success this year than any year in its history, which is saying much. Manager Couch has received a large number of reservations and he expects his hotel to be well filled with guests from the day of opening until the close in the early Fall. A number of important conventions are booked for the Oceanic Hotel during the month of June and these will bring to the resort a large number of visitors.

A number of cottages are in course of construction and it is expected that they will be ready for occupancy some time in June. A great many others are being repaired and repainted and otherwise improved.

Many other improvements that have been made and are in progress have previously been mentioned in The Star. Everything points to a most successful season in every respect.

WILLIAM JONES FINED $150

Negro Convicted of Violating the Prohibition Law—Number of Other Cases Before the Recorder Yesterday

In the Recorder's court yesterday William Jones, colored, was found guilty of violating the prohibition law and a fine of $150 and costs was imposed. Up to the present the negro has not been able to raise the amount of the fine and in the event that he cannot do so, he will probably be sent to the county roads to work out his time. Rufus Light, another negro, was found guilty on the same charge, but judgment was suspended on payment of costs.

The case grew out of the arrest of Thomas Rogers, white, last week on a charge of being drunk and down. Rogers told the officers that he procured his whiskey from Rufus Light. When Light was arrested he admitted buying the whiskey for Rogers. He stated that Rogers gave him the money and that he took it and bought the whiskey from William Jones. In the court yesterday morning Light was the chief witness against Jones. He plead that he did not know that it was a violation of the law to buy whiskey for another man, and in view of his testimony for the State the court let him off as light as possible, requiring him to pay the costs only. The defense for Jones only put on a few character witnesses, and the court imposed the fine of $150 and costs.

Another case of considerable interest was tried yesterday morning when Garfield Mason, a young white man, was found not guilty of disorderly conduct and resisting an officer. Mason was arrested by Policeman J. L. Jordan, and he contended that the officer did it out of spite and animus. He said that the officer passed him on the street and addressed an insulting remark to him and that he replied in a like manner. The officer, who was in citizens' clothes and not wearing his badge, then placed him under arrest for disorderly conduct. Mason wanted to go to the home of his sister, where he was living, to get another shirt, but the officer would not consent to this and his prisoner resisted. They finally wound up the scrap in Mason's house, where his wife was thrown aside in the scuffle, and Mason claims, seriously injured. After considering the evidence the court held that Mason was guilty on neither charge, and discharged the defendant. Mason immediately went before Justice Sykes and took out a warrant for the officer, charging him with an assault upon his wife. At the preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon Officer Jordan waived examination and the case was sent over to the Recorder's court, where it will probably be threshed out this morning.

Dave Howard and Joe Davis, both colored, were tried upon charges of assault with deadly weapon upon each other, and were fined $10 and costs apiece. There were no witnesses to the battle, the nearest being one Afro-American individual who testified that "when I seed hit, hit wuz all over," but from what could be gathered the struggle must have been a mighty one. The two gladiators used guns, knives, bricks and other impliments of warfare in their efforts to annihilate each other. Most of the blows went astray, or it is highly probable that the matter would have ended in a funeral instead of a trial.

Geo. Cole, colored, was fined $5 and costs for disorderly conduct. J. L. Bordeaux, charged with violating the street ordinance, was let off on the payment of costs. Jesse Westbrook, colored, was taxed the costs for allowing his bull dog to run at large without a muzzle, and Jno. McMillan, another negro, was found not guilty on a similar charge. One drunk paid $5 and costs.

COUNCIL MEETS TODAY.

Conference on Budget and Tax Rate Will Preceed Regular Session.

Preceded by a conference on the budget and tax rate, which have already been practically agreed upon, City Council will meet in regular weekly session at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The conference will begin at 3 o'clock and will very probably last an hour, there being several matters in connection with the budget as tentatively arranged some days ago which Council desires to further consider. It is expected that at this conference Council will decide also what the tax rate will be for the next fiscal year. It has already been practically agreed to fix it at $1.75, an increase of 45 cents, and a member stated yesterday that he thought Council would do well if it was not necessary to make a further increase.

In addition to the adoption of the tax ordinance and final action on the budget, Council will also elect the various city officials for the ensuing year. So far as known there is no opposition to those now in office and following the usual custom they will be allowed to continue in office for the full term of the administration, if there is no special reason for their removal. It now appears that the salaries will remain practically the same as the present fiscal year. However, the hope is indulged by the people generally that some increase will be granted the faithful policemen and firemen, even if it should become necessary to shave down some of the higher salaried men in order to do so.

Whether or not the sewerage question will come up again this afternoon was not known at the hall yesterday afternoon. It is quite likely that it will, however, as very few meetings are held without some reference to the sewerage controversy.

Officer Thompson Resting Well

It will be learned with pleasure by all that Mounted Officer R. J. Thompson, who was shot and seriously wounded by a negro early Sunday morning, continues to improve and that his chances for recovery are considered very good. It was stated at the James Walker Memorial Hospital last night that while not yet out of danger the officer was resting very easily and that his condition is all that could be expected considering the gravity of his injury. Mr. Thompson will have the wishes of hundreds of friends and acquaintances for an early and complete recovery.

COL. JOHN DOUGLAS TAYLOR

Venerable Citizen of the Cape Fear Entered Into Rest Yesterday Evening at His Home—Distinguished Career.

After a critical illness of several months, due more largely perhaps, to the general infirmities of one of his age, rather than to any specific cause, Colonel John Douglas Taylor, one of the most venerable and beloved citizens of the Cape Fear section, entered into rest at 8:50 o'clock last evening at his home in this city, No. 509 Orange street.

Col. Taylor had been in feeble health for some time and while it had been known for several days that his condition was extremely critical, the announcement that he had passed over the river came as a sad realization to those who have so patiently and so devotedly watched by his bedside during the past several weeks. Many friends called at the saddened home last night to extend their condolences to the family and to express their personal loss at the passing of this honored citizen. A fall during the past Winter, while Col. Taylor was on his way to attend his regular church services, greatly accentuated his enfeebled condition and though for a time the hope was cherished that he might possibly in time recover, for the past several weeks it has been known that the end might be expected at any time. Until the last he bore his affliction with that patience and resignation which had ever been a beautiful characteristic of his disposition, and his passing was as one entering into a long sleep.

It is given to few of this generation to enjoy the love and respect of his fellowman in that measure which was Colonel Taylor's during his long and distinguished career. All classes and conditions of men recognized his worth and appreciated his genial and kindly presence. As brave as a lion, as true as steel and yet as gentle as a little child, his was a personality that was to love and admire. His presence among a people he loved and to whom he was devoted will be sadly missed. Highly intellectual, though never parading his gifts, modest, retiring in his disposition and never putting himself forward, he embodied in his nature those characteristics of the true Southern gentleman so seldom encountered in this latter day life.

Col. Taylor was a son of John A. and Katharine Taylor and was born in Wilmington March 24th, 1831. He was, therefore, in the 82nd year of his age. He was prepared for college by Dr. Wilson, at the Hillsborough Academy, a famous preparatory school of North Carolina in its day. He matriculated at the University of the State in 1850, entering the Sophomore Class, graduating in 1853. This class numbered 62 students, many of whom were from the Cape Fear section, including the late Mr. David Worth, Col. K. M. Murchison, Col. Alfred M. Waddell and Mr. Dubrutz Cutlar, the only surviving member of the class now being Mr. Walker Meares, of this city, who was with his old friend and classmate when the final summons came last evening at the family home.

After graduation Col. Taylor went for a tour of Europe accompanied by Dr. William B. Wilkins, returning to his home on one of the first steamers that ever crossed the Atlantic. He embraced the life of a planter upon his return and took charge of the large interests of his father, "The Oaks", in Brunswick county, being the last of the Cape Fear rice planters, who lived in great state upon the west side of the river during the earlier life of this country. Being a man of influence and position, he represented Brunswick, Columbus and Bladen counties in the State Senate in 1860-61, defeating Andrew Jones, a celebrated politician of that period, and serving at the term of the Legislature which declared for secession. At the outbreak of the War Between the States, he raised a company in Brunswick county of which he was made captain and which was assigned to the 36th Regiment, Second Artillery, assigned to duty under Col. William Lamb, the regiment being divided into ten companies, which saw service at Fort Campbell, which Col. Taylor afterwards commanded, as he did also Fort Anderson. After the fall of the forts of the lower Cape Fear, he joined Johnson's army as Lieutenant Colonel of the 36th Regiment, C. S. A., Hoke's Division, and was in the battles of Kinston and Bentonville, being wounded in the latter engagement, March 19th, 1865. In the charge in which Col. Taylor was wounded, losing an arm, 58 per cent. of his regiment, including every commissioned officer, was either killed outright or wounded. The charge of the regiment became so historic as to be recognized in a poem written by Mr. Galloway, a brother of Dr. W. C. Galloway, of this city, and dedicated to Col. Taylor and his men, "The Red Infantry", so denominated because of the striking uniform worn by the command.

After the war Col. Taylor returned to his ancestral acres on the lower Cape Fear, pursuing the life of a planter until he removed to Wilmington in 1877. Soon after removing to this city he was called upon to fill an unexpired term as Clerk of the Superior Court in place of a Republican who had been deposed for malfeasance in office. He was later city clerk and treasurer of Wilmington for several terms and was elected Clerk of the Superior Court in 1890, which position he filled with singular fidelity for 22 successive years, having been five times re-elected without opposition from the opposing party and without opposition for the nomination of his own party. He had entered upon his sixth term, when in January of this year he was forced to resign on account of his failing health.

He was the first commander of Cape Fear Camp, United Confederate Veterans, of this county, and remained a true and loyal member until the last. Col. Taylor was a devoted and consecrated member of the Presbyterian Church and had been a ruling elder of the First Church, this city, for more than 25 years. His counsel was always safe and was frequently sought in the affairs of the congregation.

On the 9th of November, 1859, Col. Taylor married Miss Sarah Elizabeth Walker, a niece of the late Daniel Russell, Sr., of Brunswick county, who reared her from infancy upon the death of her parents in Mississippi, and they lived happily to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary in 1909, with all their children and grandchildren with them, not a death having occurred in the immediate family up to that time. There are now surviving of the immediate family the following sons and daughters, all of whom, except Mrs. Scales, who is desperately ill in a Philadelphia hospital, were with their father when he passed away: Mrs. P. B. Manning; Mr. J. Allan Taylor, Col. Walker Taylor, of Wilmington; Mrs. Chas. E. Borden, of Richmond; Mrs. A. M. Scales, of Greensboro; Miss Fannie Taylor, Mrs. W. H. Pemberton, and Mr. Edward T. Taylor, of Wilmington; also one nephew, Mr. Edward S. Tennent, of Spartanburg, S. C., who was also with the family when the end came. The news from Mrs. Scales last evening was more encouraging, though she is not yet out of danger, and of course, has not been apprised of her father's death. The family have the tenderest sympathy of all in the affliction which is upon them.

The funeral of Col. Taylor will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the First Presbyterian Church, Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., the pastor, officiating, and the interment will be in Oakdale cemetery. The veterans and the bar of the city will likely attend the obsequies in a body as a last sad mark of respect and esteem.

No class of citizens more generally deplore the death of Col. Taylor than his comrades in arms of 1860-65. As Clerk of the Superior Court, he was for years chairman of the Pension Board of the county and no appeal ever failed to touch his heart and none was ever denied where it was possible within the law to meet the wish of the old soldier. Col. William Lamb, who commanded Fort Fisher at its fall, has written for Clark's Regimental History a remarkably connected account of Col. Taylor's war record and it is here reproduced:

"With the fall of Fort Fisher and the capture of its garrison, the services of the gallant 36th North Carolina Regiment were not ended. It was reserved for Lieut. Col. John D. Taylor, and a detachment of this regiment who were absent on leave when the fort was taken, to cover themselves with glory as a part of the famous 'Red Infantry' at the battle of Bentonville.

"After the evacuation of Forts Caswell and Campbell, on reaching Fort Anderson, Col. Simonton was ordered to join his brigade and all the troops were placed under Lieut. Col. Taylor, who was attached to General Hagood's brigade. They remained at Fort Anderson about 30 days, the fort being shelled the latter part of the time by the Federal fleet.

"After several times checking the advance of Coxe's troops, the Confederates fell back to Wilmington, reaching there February 21st, 1865, and next day, 22nd of February, they evacuated Wilmington as a part of Gen. Hoke's division.

"They then marched to Kinston to check Schofield's advance from Newbern. After participating with Gen. Hill in the engagement at Cobb's Mill they marched through Goldsboro, to Bentonville, in Johnston county, where they joined the army under Gen. Joseph E. Johnston. Here, the last great battle of the war was fought, beginning Sunday, March, 1865. Lieut. Col. Taylor fearlessly led a charge and captured the breastworks, although defended by a largely superior force. He led 267 rank and file, including a detachment of the 36th North Carolina Regiment, and came out with only 115. Every officer was killed, wounded or captured save two. Col. Taylor lost his left arm; Capt. Brooks, of Company K, was wounded, but not seriously. I have not learned if any other officers of our regiment were present. In that magnificent charge Capts. Taylor, Rankin and McDougal, of MacRae's Battalion, were mortally wounded.

"Officers who had served in the army of Northern Virginia said it was the hottest infantry fight they had ever been in except Cold Harbor. Thus in the closing act of the fearful drama of our Civil War, the glorious 36th North Carolina added with their co-patriots to the undying fame of the Confederate soldier.

"When in the coming years the historian shall write of the peerless valor and self-sacrificing patriotism of the soldiers of this grand old commonwealth, none will stand higher and brighter on the pages of history than the 36th N. C. Regiment."

The United States revenue cutter Seminole left her station here yesterday for a short inspection cruise off the North and South Carolina coasts. While on the cruise the cutter will go as far south as Savannah, probably returning here in a few days.

The schooner Frederick Roessner, Capt. Chase, arrived yesterday in ballast from New Bedford, Mass., the vessel coming to Messrs. Maffitt & Wood.

—Among the arrivals at The Southern yesterday were: E. D. Hill, Watha; Mrs. W. H. Haddock, Hoffman; James F. Rivers, Polkton; B. S. Koonce, Chadbourn; Will Spivy, Page's Mill, S. C.

ROBBERY MONDAY NIGHT.

Store of Farley & Co., Entered From Rear Window—Police at Work.

Report was made to police station yesterday morning that the store of Farley & Co., on the south side of Market, between Front and Second streets, had been entered and robbed some time during the night. Just what the robbers secured has not been determined, but it is not thought that the goods taken were of any great quantity or value.

The intruders entered through window at the rear of the store, and as the building is of considerable depth it would have been a very easy matter for them to have made a leisurely examination of the stock without any great danger of detection from the patrolman on Market street. However, from what was ascertained yesterday, it is not believed that much was secured. This is the first store-breaking in some time. The police are working on the case and hope to find some clue that will lead them to the guilty party of parties.

FEAST OF PENTECOST.

Confirmation Services at Temple of Israel This Morning.

The Feast of Pentecost, or Shebuoth, will be celebrated by the Hebrew citizens of Wilmington this morning at 11 o'clock at the Tempie of Israel when confirmation services will be held. A good-sized class will be received. The public is cordially invited to attend the services.

This feast takes its name from the fact that its celebration was determined by an interval of seven weeks, or 50 days, from the Feast of the Passover. It is also known as the Feast of Weeks and the Feast of the First Fruits, and, like the Feast of the Passover, it has an agricultural and historical significance. Agriculturally it represents the early harvest season when the first of the wheat, baked in two loaves, was taken to the temple as an offering of gratitude and a token of man's dependence on God. Historically it dates back through almost uncounted centuries.

A Remedy No Family Should Do Without

No matter how healthy a human being may be it is safe to say that not many months are passed without some obstruction of the bowels, in other words, constipation, even if only temporary. The bloating, the dull feeling may start after the evening meal. If a laxative is not taken that night it is certain that sleep will not be sound, and you will awaken unrefreshed.

Hence, it is important for you and for all the members of your family that a good, reliable laxative be always kept in the house for just such emergency. It is sure to be needed, and when needed you want it at hand. No family that is careful of its health can do without such a remedy. But the question of which remedy to have on hand is also of vast importance.

The laxative most highly recommended by the majority of intelligent Americans as being best for babies and grownups is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a liquid laxative-tonic, mild, and never gripes, is effective on robust people and can be given with safety to an infant. Children like it because of these gentle qualities and because it is pleasant to the taste.

It is the best all-around remedy you can have in the house for any disorder of the stomach, liver and bowels, and many people like Mrs. Lydia E. Thomas, Calhoun, Ga., and D. H. Harburg, 251 W. Wade St., Charlotte, N. C., say they would as soon be without the necessities as without Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

A very enthusiastic and well attended meeting of the Geo. Davis Children's Chapter, U. D. C., was held yesterday afternoon in the W. L. I. armory. Miss Mary Hall, the president, presided, and the secretary, Miss Bessie Toon, kept a record of the proceedings. The children decided to accept with thanks the kind invitation of Capt. John W. Harper, of the steamer Wilmington, to a free picnic to Carolina Beach. The date will be decided upon later. It was also decided to compete for the banner offered by Mrs. Leo Craig, of Gastonia, to the Children's Chapter, which makes the largest increase in membership, raises the most money for charitable purposes, and has the greatest number of children who can recite perfectly the Confederate Catechism. The Chapter will have a benefit at the Bijou theatre, in the near future, to raise money for this purpose.

STATE NORMAL FINALS ON AT GREENSBORO, N. C.

Greensboro, N. C., May 20.—The chief feature today incident to the commencement exercises in progress at the State Normal College was the annual meeting of the alumnae association, called to order by Miss Annie McIver, president. Following the reading of the report of the meetings of the board of trustees by Miss Laura Coit, the entire senior class of 1912 was elected to membership.

The following officers for the ensuing year were elected: Miss Annie McIver, president; Miss Hester Struthers, vice president; Miss Nettie Allen, Miss Laura Weil and Miss Leila White, new board members; Mrs. J. A. Brown, Miss Hattie Berry and Miss Julia Dameron, auditing committee.

At 5 o'clock this afternoon an English tea was served on the college campus to the alumnae and other college visitors. The graduating exercises occur tomorrow when constitutions will be presented by former Judge J. D. Murphy, of Asheville; Bibles by Rev. Dr. E. K. McLarty, of Greensboro, and the awarding of the diplomas to the graduates. The annual address to the graduates will be delivered by Dr. Wilbur F. Tillett, of Vanderbilt University.

TO BEGIN HEALTH CAMPAIGN

War on the Flies and Mosquitoes Will Begin Soon

The health department has outlined a very energetic and widespread campaign for the coming Summer, and while the work will, of course, have to be governed by the amount the City Council allows for the purpose, it is believed that the sum will be sufficient to maintain the work upon the scale which is planned.

The budget for the coming year will be determined upon at a meeting of the Council this afternoon, at which time the different departments will be apportioned their amounts for the year.

As soon as it is learned the exact amount that will be placed at the disposal of the health department the campaign against flies and mosquitoes will be begun. The breeding places of flies will be treated with the acid solution so successfully used last season and oil will be used in the warfare on the mosquitoes, as on last season. It is expected to accomplish even better results this season than last.

Immanuel Sunday School Picnic.

The Sunday school of Immanuel Presbyterian church will enjoy an outing at Carolina Beach next Saturday. The party will leave the city on the steamer Wilmington at 10 A. M., and arriving at the resort will remain there until the return trip of the steamer, reaching the city at 5 o'clock. Dinner will be served picnic fashion at the beach. The young people are looking forward to a most enjoyable day at the resort.

AX-GRINDING

A Science With Some Dealers—Done at the Expense of the Public

There is nothing "just as good" as Newbro's Herpicide. Some dealers will even go so far as to tell you they have something better.

That dealer has an axe to grind.

You can't stop his grinding, but you can prevent him grinding it at your expense.

There is one sure, swift way to do it.

Go where you can get what you ask for.

You won't be obliged to do this very often, as fortunately the majority of druggists are honest and conscientious.

Newbro's Herpicide has been so long and favorably known as the original dandruff germ destroyer that no one should be deceived.

When you need a hair remedy, you don't want one which merely promises to kill the dandruff germ and prevent the hair from falling.

You want one that will do it.

Herpicide does it.

The hair becomes soft and lustrous. There is life, snap and beauty where formerly the hair was dead, dull and brittle.

Newbro's Herpicide is sold and guaranteed by all druggists.

Applications of this wonderful prophylactic may be obtained at the best barber shops and hair dressing parlors.

Send ten cents in postage or silver to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich., for a nice sample of Herpicide and a booklet telling all about the hair.

ROBERT R. BELLAMY, Special Agt.

LOCAL DOTS.

—J. D. McLean, a young white man, submitted to a charge of fast driving before Justice Bornemann yesterday and judgment was suspended on payment of costs.

—The Sunday school of the First Presbyterian church will have its annual picnic to Wrightsville Beach Friday afternoon May 24th. Cars will leave Front and Princess streets at 3 o'clock. All members of the school are cordially invited to attend.

—Councilman P. Q. Moore, in charge of the Department of Streets and Wharves, said yesterday that from present indications the improvement of Front street, from Red Cross to Princess would be completed by June 1st. Work has already commenced on that portion south of Princess.

—Ed. Austin, colored, charged with the larceny of $70 from the Orrell Livery Company, was given hearing before Justice Harriss Monday and probable cause being found the case was sent over to the Superior Court, as the Recorder's court does not have jurisdiction in cases involving the larceny of values over $20. In default of $100 bond Austin was sent to jail.

PAYNE DRUG COMPANY.

New Store Located at Fifth and Red Cross Streets Now Open.

The Payne Drug Company, located at Fifth and Red Cross streets, is now open for business and the outlook for the success of the company is most promising. The store is under the management of Mr. Harry E. Payne, an experienced young pharmacist, and in addition to being prepared to do a large and up-to-date drug and prescription business, it is also equipped to serve soft drinks and ice cream, and also to carry a first-class line of cigars, tobacco, etc.

The new store is one of the handsomest and most sanitary in the city. Every arrangement is designed for convenience, beauty and sanitary efficiency. All fixtures are modern and so situated as to display goods in a most elaborate fashion.

The line of drugs carried is strictly fresh and is complete in every particular. Special attention is called to the prescription department and to the fact that every prescription bottle will be sterilized by a special process of hot water and steam. The company is equipped to make rapid bicycle deliveries and will deliver to any part of the city free of charge.

The soda fountain is designed along strictly sanitary lines. It was purchased through the Bishop-Babcock-Becker Company, of Cleveland, Ohio. Another commendable feature of the store is that all windows and doors are screened against flies, thus reducing the presence of these pests to a minimum.

Mr. Payne has had eight years' experience in prescription work in Wilmington, in addition to work in Reidsville, Greensboro, Rocky Mount, Raleigh, Winston-Salem and Durham. He passed the examination of the North Carolina Pharmacy Board in 1908, with a very creditable mark. Mr. Payne has an apartment over the store and will be glad to answer calls day or night. A night bell is located on the front door.

Mr. Payne reports a very satisfactory business since the store has been open, which is growing every day. The new company gives a drug store to a portion of the city which has heretofore not had one and he and the young men who are associated with him in the business are much gratified over the promising outlook.

INTEREST IS DEEPENING.

Good Attendance at Fifth Street Methodist Church Last Night.

Despite the slightly inclement weather, a large congregation attended the revival service at Fifth Street Methodist Church last night, when Rev. Raymond Browning, the evangelist who is assisting Rev. G. T. Adams, the pastor, during the series, preached on "The Equipment of a Soldier of Christ." The sermon was a masterly discourse and it made a profound impression upon those who heard it. Interest in the series is deepening with each service and the prospects are for a most successful series of meetings.

Services are held each night at 8 o'clock with song service at 7:45. Music is furnished by a large chorus choir and is proving a very interesting feature of the services. The public is cordially invited.

DEATH OF MRS. M. M. SUE.

Passed Away at Family Residence Last Night in This City.

Friends will deeply regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Margaret M. Sue, beloved wife of Mr. Alexander Sue, which occurred last night about 10 o'clock at the family residence, No. 908 South Ninth street. The deceased was 75 years old and in addition to her husband, leaves to mourn her loss seven children, six daughters and one son, all of this immediate section. The bereaved ones will have the tenderest sympathy of friends in the great sorrow that has come upon them.

The remains will be taken to Farmers, Brunswick county, this afternoon on the 3:15 train, and the funeral will be held there. Interment will be in the family burying ground.

Freight Wreck Near Nichols

Six cars of a Wilmington-bound freight train were derailed yesterday, near Nichols, S. C., delaying train No. 54, from Columbia, due here shortly after 1 o'clock, until about 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon. No one was hurt in the wreck and the line was soon cleared, so that traffic was resumed.

..Theatrical..

The Grand Theatre will offer today a great Pathe entitled, "The Justice of Manitou," a great and wonderful production of Indian life and a splendid Biograph of "His Lesson," which awakens the hero just in time.

Indian pictures are always favorites but the Pathe for today will be found especially interesting and attractive. In the Biograph the hero had no thought but to work and save money. His poor wife did nothing but drudge with no return than an existence. This poisons one's spirit in time. Day after day it was work, work, with never a kind word or word of encouragement from the husband. Her plea for a new hat was met with "we can't afford it." One day a young man stops at the farm house for a drink of water. He reads her story from her face and tells her that her eyes are too bright and her face too fair for that kind of existence. The husband hears of it and is made to realize what her life is. There is a change and the change is for the better. The pictures teach a strong lesson and is put on especially strong and with a beauty that is always characteristic of the Biograph productions. The Grand Theatre was never more popular than now. It is delightfully cool and pleasant; an ideal place to meet one's friend downtown or to stop in for a few minutes when one's business brings him in the vicinity of the popular playhouse.

LECTURE FRIDAY NIGHT.

Because of the importance of the subject and the ability of the lecturer who will appear at the Boys' Brigade next Friday night, the attendance is expected to be large. Seldom does an opportunity equal to this one to hear a splendid lecture present itself to the people of the city and it will be delivered at the popular price of 25 cents, which is the lowest rate ever given for this class of entertainment. The country which will be the subject of the lecture is one of the oldest on the face of the earth and presents many historic features which always appeal strongly to the modern mind. The people, their customs and ideas of life are so strangely at variance with ours that they form a unique subject for any lecturer and when pictures of places and the people in their native environment are added to a splendid oral description it becomes indeed a fascinating subject to all. The pictures which will be shown during the course of the lecture were taken by the lecturer himself from the actual scenes he describes and are true to life in every particular. From an educational or purely entertainment standpoint this lecture will be a treat to those who attend.

The lecturer is Lieut. R. E. Steele, formerly of the United States Navy, and his subject will be Denmark, Norway and Sweden.

WORK TO BEGIN MONDAY.

Large Force of Men to be Put to Work on New A. C. L. Station.

Mr. J. C. Robertson, treasurer of the Boyle-Robertson Construction Company, of Washington, D. C., which has the contract for the erection of the new A. C. L. passenger station here, is in the city and stated yesterday that the construction work will be started next Monday morning. Mr. Robertson is placing orders with local dealers for such supplies as can be advantageously secured here, and he made calls upon a number of business houses yesterday.

A large force of laborers will be put to work next Monday morning preparing for the laying of the foundation, and this work will be pushed as rapidly as possible, in order that the construction of the building proper may be begun at the earliest moment possible.

Fire Practically Out

Though several members of the fire department are still on the scene with a line of hose ready as a preventative measure, the fire which destroyed the storage shed and a large stock of finished gum veneering of the Acme Tea Chest Company, is now practically out. The flames smouldered in the large stock of veneering all Monday night, and a times yesterday a small blaze would break out at different places but they would soon succumb to the water thrown on them. By today the smouldering fire will most likely be completely out.

Healthy Mothers

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

"I spent lots of money with the doctors"

"They gave me up; and said I would have to be operated on or die", writes Mr. G. S. Raspberry of Jewnison, Ala., who suffered from what the doctors called "appendicitis".

The real trouble was impure blood. His constitution was too weak to throw off the accumulated poisons.

"I was so weak", he says, "I was not able to be operated on. I got Botanic Blood Balm instead. And thank God, it was just the thing I needed! It cured me sound and well".

No matter what name you give to your disease. No matter whether it appears on the surface in sores and ulcers, or settles inside of you as rheumatism or catarrh, the trouble is in your blood. And this blood-cleansing tonic is what you need.

Your money back if it fails.

If your druggist hasn't it insist that he get it for you. He will.

Just to Please Our Customers

We have just installed a PROSPERITY Collar Moulder, a machine designed to shape your collars so that there will be ample tie space at all times. This is just a further evidence of our determination to do good work.

This machine presses the collars; there is no friction movement to wear out your linen; to demonstrate that it will not break or crack them, collars have been subjected to 25,000 consecutive pressings before being removed from the rings and they showed no wear, nor did they shine as they must when finished by the old friction process.

Send your collars here and compare our work with that of work done elsewhere. You'll deal here ever afterward.

COTTON MARKET WAS HIGHER

Reports of Increasing Trade Demand and Predictions for Showers Sent Prices Up—Close Was 17 Points Higher.

New York, May 21.—The cotton market was higher today on covering by recent sellers, reports of an increasing trade demand and predictions for showers in parts of the Eastern belt. The close was very steady and from 15 to 17 points net higher.

The market opened steady at a decline of 1@4 points and sold about 4 to 5 points net lower during the first few minutes, under scattering liquidation or local pressure inspired by reports of generally favorable weather in the South over night and easier late cables from Liverpool. There was not a great deal of cotton for sale, however, and on the Eastern belt forecast for showers in South Carolina and Georgia, the market turned steady. The talk around the ring reflected no actual apprehension of really bad weather, but with the government report only two weeks away, recent sellers were evidently cautious and the talk of a better trade demand undoubtedly served to stimulate scattered covering.

Trading did not become active on the advance, but the market worked gradually higher and in the late trading active positions were selling about 12 to 18 points net higher. The close was a point or two off from the best, under realizing. There was considerable buying by spot people during the day, which tended to color the talk of a better demand from spinners and the market acted as if it contained a considerable scattering short interest as a result of recent selling on better weather and improving crop accounts.

Local gossip attributes the dullness of business to a disposition to await the government's condition report, which is to be published on June 4, or for some fresh development. There was considerable buying here during the day, against sales in Liverpool, by one of the big spot people.

Receipts, 10,129 bales, against 8,419 last week, and 9,933 last year. Today's receipts at Galveston, 2,391, against 1,485 last year; at New Orleans, 3,244, against 2,847 last year, and at Houston, 468, against 494 last year.

Spot, quiet, 10 points higher; middling uplands, 11.60 bid; middling gulf, 11.85; sales, 195 bales.

Futures closed very quiet.

The Demons of the Swamp

are mosquitoes. As they sting they put deadly malaria germs in the blood. Then follow the icy chills and the fires of fever. The appetite flies and the strength fails; also malaria often paves the way for deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters kill and cast out the malaria germs from the blood; give you a fine appetite and renew your strength. "After long suffering," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "three bottles drove all the malaria from my system, and I've had good health ever since." Best for all stomach, liver and kidney ills. 50cts. at R. R. Bellamy's.

STOCKS DULL AND IRREGULAR

With the Exception of Sporadic Flashes of Activity Yesterday's Market Was Utterly Lacking in Significance.

New York, May 21.—Eliminating sporadic flashes of activity today's stock market was dull and utterly lacking in significance. Leading stocks were under pressure. United States Steel fluctuated within a fraction of yesterday's close. Lehigh Valley and Reading both bore the marks of covert liquidation and bear attacks, and the standard or dividend payment grangers, the trunk lines and trans-continentals were more or less neglected.

The lower range of prices with which the market opened was again attributed to London, where American securities, in common with other stocks, were dull and irregular. Canadian Pacific followed its decline abroad with a two-point drop here, and this was soon extended to 3½ points. Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste Marie, an affiliated road, also was heavy, with more selling of Reading and the local favorites. Before noon the list recovered a material part of its early reverse, the tobacco shares showing unwonted activity and strength. American Tobacco rose three points, Liggett and Myers 4½ and Lorillard 6 points. The dull afternoon session was marked by further irregularity in the market leaders, the closing being fairly steady, despite renewed heaviness in the Coalers, and Canadian Pacific.

Demand for money in the local market fell to low ebb today. Call loans shaded a trifle and over year money was abundant, at four per cent. Prices of bonds were a trifle and over-year money was abundant, at four per cent. Prices of bonds were a trifle lower. Bond sales, $2,329,000. United States government bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales, 358,500 shares.

Atlanta, Ga., May 21.—Charles W. Morse, will pay $100,000 to the lawyers who were instrumental in securing his freedom, according to a story printed here today in an afternoon paper. Attorney Thomas B. Felder, of the law firm of Anderson, Felder, Rountree and Wilson, who acted in the case in conjunction with a Columbus, Ohio, firm, said after reading the story, that the arrangement his firm had with Mr. Morse was confidential and that he did not care to discuss it.

ADVERTISING CLUB MEETS.

Officers' Conference May Adopt Rules to Prevent Contests.

Dallas, Tex., May 21.—The officers' conference of the Associated Advertising Club of America today developed a strong sentiment to adopt rules before this convention adjourns, which wi.. end struggles at future gatherings, for the next convention city. The plan is to give the board of directors power to name the place of holding the convention each year, and to avoid contests by different cities before the general convention. It also is the sense of the officers of the association that entertainment at convention cities shall be limited to the evening in order that the days may be given to work. The standardization of requirements for admission into advertising clubs affiliated with the association and of the requirements for that affiliation were also discussed. The sentiment prevailed that only bona fide advertising men, buyers and sellers of advertising should be eligible to membership. A commission will be appointed to make an investigation and report on local advertising conditions all over the United States, according to action taken today.

San Francisco, Baltimore and Toronto are the contending cities for the 1913 convention. That decision and election of officers will be made Thursday.

Six conferences, each devoted to a discussion of an important advertising subject, were held during the morning session today and in the afternoon the delegates assembled in general convention to discuss as a whole all of the questions considered in the conference.

Tonight the president's reception was held, 4,000 persons attending.

Tomorrow the advertisers will be guests of Fort Worth, 30 miles distant, where a programme of entertainment has been provided.

Special trains will return the crowd to Dallas Wednesday night. The final sessions will be held Thursday and Friday morning the visitors will start upon a circle tour of Texas.

CLOSING AT NORMAL

Interesting Exercises Mark Ceremonies at Greensboro.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., May 21.—With beautiful exercises and before a distinguished assemblage of alumnae and State educators 50 young women were this morning graduated from the State Normal and Industrial College, the ceremonies of graduation featuring the closing day of the 20th annual commencement of the college. The exercises were held in the spacious college auditorium at 10:30 o'clock this morning and aside from many State officials, State educators and citizens, the 600 college girls, more than 200 members of the alumnae were present.

President Foust presided and made a brief talk preliminary to the annual address by Dr. Wilbur F. Tillett, of Vanderbilt University. Dr. Tillett spoke for an hour and his words were inspiring as well as an urgent appeal to the young women to give back to the State a part of what it has given them. Following Dr. Tillett's splendid address Judge J. D. Murphy presented each of the graduates a copy of the constitution of the State and Nation. Rev. E. K. McLarty presented each a copy of the Bible.

Last night and this afternoon reunions of former classes have been held, the business sessions in each instance being followed by teas or informal receptions and dinners. The commencement closing this afternoon has been one of the greatest in point of attendance in the history of the college.

FIVE JOY RIDERS DROWNED

Speeding Automobile Plunges Into the Calumet River, Chicago

Chicago, May 21.—Five persons, three men and two women, were drowned early today when the automobile in which they were riding plunged into the Calumet river at the 92nd street bridge.

Bodies of two of the five persons were recovered today and tonight. One body is that of Anna Mahoney and the other is thought, from letters found in the clothing, to be that of John Boyd.

Two other victims are Florence Mahoney, a sister of Anna ,and John W. Buchannan, chauffeur of the car, which belonged to Mrs. C. F. Spaulding, and had been "borrowed" by Buchannan without her permission to take his friends riding.

The automobile, which was going about 30 miles an hour, turned completely over as it went into the river. The bridge had been swung to allow a boat to pass, and although a warning was shouted to the driver of the machine by the watchman, the former was unable to apply the brakes in time.

When the car was first raised, the number of the license tag was 5. This tag was issued to O. W. Cannon, of Danville, who is a nephew of Representative Joseph G. Cannon. It was some time before the real ownership of the car was learned.

STEVEDORES' STRIKE ENDS.

Men Get Increase of Pay and Recognition of Their Union.

Baltimore, May 20.—Agreeing to pay their men 25 cents an hour and to recognize the union, fourteen employing stevedore managers signed contracts with local representatives of the National Transport Workers' Federation, and 1,200 men who were on strike, went to work today. There are about 2,000 'longshoremen still out.

To forestall a strike which had been called against them, the Atlantic Fruit Company, the United Fruit Company and the Lanasa & Goffe Company today granted an increase of five cents an hour to their stevedores.

Mexico City, Mex., May 21. — The cavalry and vanguard of General Huerta's division was on the heiughts of Asunsolo, five miles north of Escalon, today, fighting the advance guard of Orozco's army, according to information obtained from President Madero. The rebels, he said, were being dislodged.

COLLEGE BOARD'S REPORT

Committee Makes Annual Report to General Assembly.

Louisville, Ky., May 21.—In its annual report to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America made today the College Board answers in the affirmative the question, "Is the Bible thoroughly and heartily taught in our colleges?"

The board says in part:

So far as the colleges co-operating with the board of this assembly are concerned, the board is able to give a definite and satisfactory reply. The policy of the board makes it a condition of co-operation with any college that it requires all regular students to take systematic Bible study as a part of the curriculum required for graduation, in accordance with the agreement between the College Board and the Annual College Conference.

The board makes a further condition "that the college has in its faculty only such teachers as can be regarded as exerting a positive Christian influence, over the president whose college receives aid from the board gives a signed statement to the board that these conditions have been complied with. If in any college there is neglect or indifference to such Bible teaching and Christian influence it arises from a temporary cause, which, under the pressure of the general Christian spirit of our colleges, soon passes away.

It has come to pass that there is no other place today but the Christian college where a comprehensive knowledge of the Bible as a book is required to be taught as a part of the curriculum required for graduation. The Christian college has a freedom in the matter of Bible study that is denied to State schools. It has the greatest opportunity in American educational life today to give a working knowledge of the Bible to its students. The time has come for the Christian college to take still greater advantage of that freedom and that opportunity.

The board is thankful to report contributions from 5,010 churches, to the amount of $189,525.20. From the board, through the board and from individuals directly, the colleges received last year the sum of $1,342,925.86. For this impressive sum the board most heartily gives, and asks the assembly to give due credit to the untiring and self-denying efforts of our college presidents and to the benevolent friends in and out of the Church who so liberally responded to their appeals.

ORDERED HELD FOR TRIAL.

Prominent Oklahoma People Charged With Murder of Man.

Tulsa, Okla., May 21.—Mrs. Laura Reuter, Guy D. McKenzie, Grover Bellew, McKenzie's chauffeur, and Joe Baker, jointly charged with murder in connection with the death of Chas. T. Reuter, the woman's husband, were ordered held for trial before the district court at the conclusion of their preliminary hearing late today. Mrs. Reuter will be released under bond. Application seeking the release of the other defendants will be contested.

Reuter, a prominent attorney of Tulsa, was found dead at his home on the morning of May 5th, with two bullet wounds in his head. The arrests followed.

Because of the prominence of the parties involved the hearing attracted unusual attention, fashionably gowned women making up the greater part of the audiences during the taking of testimony, which extended through a week.

TURNS TO BIBLE.

Gov. Brown Justifies Anti-Pardon Course of Old Testament.

Atlanta, Ga., May 21.—Governor Brown today turned to the Old Testament injunction to justify his action in refusing to stay execution in the five murder cases appealed to him during his present term of office.

"Moreover, ye shall take no satisfaction for the life of a murderer, which is guilty of death, but he shall surely be put to death. Whoso killeth any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the mouth of witnesses,"—verses 30 and 31, 35th chapter of Numbers.

The Governor made known the fact that he had sought Biblical commandment to help him reach a conclusion after the prison commission had given out the information that there had been a falling off of appeals for clemency since the Governor's firm stand in two cases recently.

Wells, of Wilmington will preach the commencement sermon Sunday; there will be exercises by the school Monday night; the graduating exercises, with an address by State Treasurer Lacy, take place Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, and the class exercises will be held Tuesday night.

NEW VENIRE ORDERED.

Two Jurors in Allen Trial Removed From List.

Wytheville, Va., May 21.—With 14 of the 16 tentative jurors chosen for the trial of Claude Allen, charged with murdering Judge Massie, when the Allens shot up Carroll county court last March, a new venire of 36 talesmen was ordered summoned when court adjourned tonight. J. B. Martin and J. D. Crockett were removed from the tentative jury list by agreement after the 16 seats had once been filled. This leaves two tentative jurors to be chosen from the new venire.

IN'/ASION OF ARMY WORM

Agricultural Department Expert Says Caterpillar Invasion Likely

Washington, May 21.—An invasion of the cotton belt by the cotton worm or caterpillar, incorrectly called the army worm, may be expected this season in the opinion of W. D. Hunter, in charge of the Southern Field Crop investigations of the Department of Agriculture at Dallas, expressing himself by way of warning rather than prediction. He advises planters to make the necessary preparations for fighting the worm and begin operations at the earliest possible moment. The invasion last season extended as far north as Canada and did considerable damage not only to cotton but to fruits in the North.

Investigation has developed that all the cotton worm moths in the United States were destroyed by the abnormal cold last Winter. "Our conclusion," says Dr. Hunter, "is that the only fear of an outbreak is in a reinvasion from Central and South America. There is one fact which seems to indicate that there may possibly be such a reinvasion. The chronology of the outbreak shows a distinct tendency toward the recurrence of a series of two or three seasons of abundance. Apparently the species reaches great numbers in South America and remains abundant for several years, thus giving rise to the consecutive swarms which have invaded the United States."

For the control of the cotton worm Mr. Hunter advises the use of powdered arsenate of lead, mixed with any other material at the rate of two pounds per acre.

LARGER REWARD OFFERED.

Detectives Announce Increased Price on Outlaws' Heads.

Roanoke, Va., May 21.—Tonight W. G. Baldwin, of the Baldwin-Felts Detective Agency, which has had in charge the matter of running to earth the members of the Allen clan who are under indictment for the Hillsville murders, announced an increase of rewards in excess of that already offered by the State, the additional rewards being offered for Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards. The offer was made on the authority of Governor William Hodges Mann.

The additional offer puts $1,500 on the head of Sidna Allen dead or alive, and $1,000 is offered for any information leading to his arrest or capture dead or alive.

Seven hundred and fifty dollars is placed on Wesley Edwards, dead or alive, and the person furnishing information leading to his arrest will receive $500.

MURDERER CHEATS GALLOWS.

Found Dead in Cell Just Few Hours Before Execution.

Macon, May 21.—Oliver Simmons, the negro who was to have been hanged today for the murder of a woman, was found dead in his cell at daylight this morning, having taken carbolic acid during the night. His body was discovered by his wife, who was admitted to his cell to bid him farewell.

The negro had been suffering from a sore leg and had been given a carbolic solution to treat it. The presumption is that he saved up a sufficient quantity of it, and when he realized all hope was gone he drank the fatal dose.

STAND ON TEMPERANCE

Assembly Would Prohibit Shipments of Liquor Into Dry States

Louisville, Ky., May 21.—Though the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America did not act on a recommendation of one man who wanted the assembly to memoralize the Federal government to prohibit the manufacture, importation and distribution of intoxicating beveridges, it took a very positive stand on the temperance question today. Congressional legislation to prohibit inter-State shipment of liquor into prohibition States or districts was endorsed.

WOMEN OF CONFEDERACY.

Artist Selected for Monument to be Given by Col. Horne.

Raleigh, May 21.—Henry A. Luk man, of New York, was selected today as the artist for the monument to North Carolina Women of the Confederacy in Capitol Square, by Colonel Ashley Horne, to cost 10,000. The committee passed on designs by a number of artists today. Final adoption of details of the monument will be ready in June. It is to be a low, massive design in semi-circular shape, the idealized figure of a Southern woman on a suitable pedestal being the central portion.

AMATEUR AVIATOR IS KILLED

Fred Southard Loses Life Soon After Buying Aeroplane

Xenia, Ohio, May 21.—Fred J. Southard, of Minneapolis, an amateur aviator, fell 100 feet at the Wright aviation field today and was instantly killed. Southard, who was 40 years old, had just bought the aeroplane from the Wright brothers.

He obtained keys to the hangar after he had been refused permission to fly without further experience. He fell just six minutes after he had begun the first flight alone.

TWO BISHOPS ELECTED.

Dr. Henderson, of Brooklyn, and W. O. Shepard, of Chicago, Are Named.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 21.—Dr. T. F. Henderson, of Brooklyn, and W. O. Shepard, of Chicago, are the new bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Conference, elected on the 11th ballot, the result of which was announced tonight. Dr. Henderson received 562 and Dr. Shepard 532. Necessary to elect, 524.

Nashville, Tenn., May 21.—President W. G. Hersig, of the Nashville Southern League club, announced today that the series with Mobile, June 3rd, 4th and 5th, would be played in Little Rock, arrangements having been made to that end. The club management hopes for a decision in its certiorari petition in the injunction case at an early date.

Chicago, May 21.—Ad Wolgast, light weight champion, and Packey McFarland rejected last night the first offer made for their appearance in a New York prize ring during the first week in June.

CONNECTION WITH C. & O.

Contract Awarded By Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio Railroad

Charlottesville, Va., May 21.—Rinehart & Dennis Company, railroad contractors, with main offices in this city, have just been awarded a 40-mile extension of the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio Railroad, running from its present northern terminus at Dante, Va., through the heart of the Allegheny mountains to a connection with the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway at Elkhorn City, Ky. The contract is the largest piece of railroad construction let in this section of the country in recent years, and by reason of the mountainous country which it runs through, the work will be of the heaviest kind of construction and very expensive, the total cost of which will approximate about $5,000,000, and consists of the following approximate quantities:

Nineteen tunnels, varying in length from 400 feet to 8,000 feet; 3,500,000 yards of excavation, of which 65 per cent is solid rock and the balance principally loose rock; 40,000 yards of concrete masonry and various other items which go to make up the construction of a heavy line of railroad. The work is to be started at once and will be covered with about 15 steam shovel outfits, 19 tunnel outfits, concrete outfits and numerous team outfits, and will provide work for about 4,000 men. Construction camps will be built at numerous points along the line. The northern end of the work will be reached over the Chesapeake and Ohio via the Big Sandy division, and the southern end will be reached over the Clinchfield Valley division of the Norfolk & Western and the present line of the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio.

One of the 19 tunnels to be built will be 8,000 feet long, which is the longest railroad tunnel east of Chicago.

BOYS DIE IN WRECK.

Two Youths Killed While Hoboing on Southern.

Greensboro, N. C., May 21.—A Hendersonville, N. C., dispatch tonight says that Otto Edney and Ernest Hill, two Hendersonville boys, aged 15 and 13 years, respectively, were fatally injured in a Southern Railroad freight wreck at Naples, four miles from Hendersonville this afternoon. The boys, it is said, were hoboing their way from Asheville.

Business Insurance

There is no doubt that the best insurance a business man or firm can carry is a Certificate of Deposit of sufficient size to tide over a crisis or to take advantage of an opportunity to purchase raw material or manufactured goods.

The crisis or the opportunity may come when the firm is borrowed up to the limit or when on account of scarcity of currency loans are being reduced.

Many concerns are making this a regular policy and each year convert a certain portion of the profits into interest-bearing Certificates of Deposit. We issue both Demand and Time Certificates.

The Atlantic Trust and Banking Company is the name of a beautiful white bird. as also derives the name "WHITE CRANE" applied to the beautiful white flour, which makes it a pleasure for the housewife to say: "I thank you for the compliment, it is grand, and so easy to make with 'WHITE CRANE' flour.

My grocer recommends it—He keeps the best of everything. If yours don't, why call Telephones No. 256 or 1970, they will give you the names of those that do.

Don't forget to add "WHITE CRANE" flour on your order tday. It's the best.
